Naturalism A Critical Appraisal:

Naturalism Steven J. Wagner, Richard Wagner, 1993 Naturalism the thesis that all facts are natural facts that is the facts that can be recognised and explained by a natural science plays a central role in contemporary analytical philosophy Yet many philosophers reject the claims of naturalism The essays in this anthology explore the difficulties of naturalism by revealing the ambiguities surrounding it as well as the tensions that exist among its critics Naturalism a Critical Appraisal Wagner, 1993-07-31 Naturalism William Lane Craig, J.P. Moreland, 2002-01-04 Naturalism provides a rigorous analysis and critique of the major varieties of contemporary philosophical naturalism The authors advocate the thesis that contemporary naturalism should be abandoned in light of the serious objections raised against it Contributors draw on a wide range of topics including epistemology the philosophy of science the philosophy of mind and agency and natural theology A Critical Appraisal of Karl Olivecrona's Legal Philosophy Torben Spaak, 2014-06-17 This book offers a critical appraisal of Karl Olivecrona's legal philosophy Based on Olivecrona's critique of the view that law has binding force the analysis of the concept and function of a legal rule and the idea that law is a matter of organized force the book argues that Olivecrona's legal philosophy is a unique contribution to twentieth century legal philosophy It shows how Olivecrona's philosophy can be used in the assessment of contemporary theories of law such as those put forward by Hart Raz Dworkin and Alexy In addition the book argues that Olivecrona's various discussions of theories defended by key people in the history of legal and political philosophy are highly interesting contributions They not only increase our understanding of the legal and political philosophy of previous generations but also enhances our insight into legal philosophical questions that remain with us today The Routledge Dictionary of Philosophy Michael Proudfoot, A.R. Platonistic and Disenchanting Theories of Ethics Hugh Storer Chandler, 2007 Original Scholarly Monograph

Consciousness and the Existence of God J.P. Moreland, 2010-04-26 In Consciousness and the Existence of God JP Moreland argues that the existence of finite irreducible consciousness or its regular law like correlation with physical states provides evidence for the existence of God Considering Searle's contingent correlation O'Connor's emergent necessitation and Nagel's mysterian naturalism Moreland concludes that these versions of naturalism should be rejected in favor of what he calls the Argument from Consciousness

The Blackwell Companion to Natural Theology William Lane Craig, J. P. Moreland, 2012-02-27 With the help of in depth essays from some of the world's leading philosophers The Blackwell Companion to Natural Theology explores the nature and existence of God through human reason and evidence from the natural world Provides in depth and cutting edge treatment of natural theology's main arguments Includes contributions from first rate philosophers well known for their work on the relevant topics Updates relevant arguments in light of the most current state of the art philosophical and scientific discussions Stands in useful contrast and opposition to the arguments of the new atheists

Darwin's Pious Idea Conor Cunningham, 2010-12-03 According to British scholar Conor Cunningham the debate today between religion and evolution has been hijacked by extremists on one side stand fundamentalist believers who reject evolution outright on the opposing side are fundamentalist atheists who claim that Darwin's theory rules out the possibility of God Both sides are dead wrong argues Cunningham who is at once a Christian and a firm believer in the theory of evolution In Darwin's Pious Idea Cunningham puts forth a trenchant compelling case for both creation and evolution drawing skillfully on an array of philosophical theological historical and scientific sources to buttress his arguments

A Naturalistic

Epistemology Hilary Kornblith, 2014 This volume collects thirteen papers by Hilary Kornblith on the theme of naturalistic epistemology These papers present Kornblith's own version of a naturalistic epistemology together with critical discussion of alternative approaches including work on foundationalism the coherence theory of justification internalism and externalism social epistemology the role of intuitions in philosophical theorizing epistemic normativity and the ways in which philosophical theories may be informed by empirical considerations On What It Is Nenad Miscevic, Thomas J. Spiegel, Tamás Paár, Vitor Hirschbruch Schwartz, Tamás Hankovszky, Tolgahan Toy, Serdal Tümkaya, Adrienne Gálosi, Botond Csuka, Ádám Smrcz, Bence Péter Marosán, Ferenc Takó, Ádám Tamás Tuboly, Josef Ehrenmüller, 2017-01-14 When the world in which philosophers need to work and on which they ought to reflect starts changing rapidly asking questions about the nature of her discipline becomes especially pressing for the philosopher When new scholarly disciplines pop up radically restructuring the academic world problems concerning the place of philosophy among other disciplines need to be addressed When new kinds of problems enter the world and the public consciousness philosophers have to be able to tell whether their conceptual tools make them suitable to deal with them And when the very purpose and nature of academic research and scholarship transforms due to technological social and economical advancements philosophy has to redefine its place in academia and society Philosophical Methodology: The Armchair or the Laboratory? Matthew Haug, 2013-07-31 What methodology should philosophers follow Should they rely on methods that can be conducted from the armchair Or should they leave the armchair and turn to the methods of the natural sciences such as experiments in the laboratory Or is this opposition itself a false one Arguments about philosophical methodology are raging in the wake of a number of often conflicting currents such as the growth of experimental philosophy the resurgence of interest in metaphysical questions and the use of formal methods This outstanding collection of specially commissioned chapters by leading international philosophers discusses these questions and many more It provides a comprehensive survey of philosophical methodology in the most important philosophical subjects metaphysics epistemology philosophy of language philosophy of mind phenomenology philosophy of science ethics and aesthetics A key feature of the collection is that philosophers discuss and evaluate contrasting approaches in each subject offering a superb overview of the variety of methodological approaches both naturalistic and non naturalistic in each of these areas They examine important topics at the heart of methodological argument including the role of intuitions and conceptual analysis thought experiments introspection and the place that results from the natural sciences should have in philosophical theorizing The collection begins with a fascinating exchange about philosophical naturalism between Timothy Williamson and Alexander Rosenberg and also includes contributions from the following philosophers Lynne Rudder Baker Matt Bedke Greg Currie Michael Devitt Matthew C Haug Jenann Ismael Hilary Kornblith Neil Levy E J Lowe Kirk Ludwig Marie McGinn David Papineau Matthew Ratcliffe Georges Rey Jeffrey W Roland Barry C Smith Amie L Thomasson Valerie Tiberius Jessica Wilson and David W Smith Being as Communion

William A. Dembski, 2016-04-15 For a thing to be real it must be able to communicate with other things If this is so then the problem of being receives a straightforward resolution to be is to be in communion So the fundamental science indeed the science that needs to underwrite all other sciences is a theory of communication Within such a theory of communication the proper object of study becomes not isolated particles but the information that passes between entities In Being as Communion philosopher and mathematician William Dembski provides a non technical overview of his work on information Dembski attempts to make good on the promise of John Wheeler Paul Davies and others that information is poised to replace matter as the primary stuff of reality With profound implications for theology and metaphysics Being as Communion develops a relational ontology that is at once congenial to science and open to teleology in nature All those interested in the intersections of theology philosophy and science should read this book Metaphilosophy of Law Pawel Banas, Adam Dyrda, Tomasz Gizbert-Studnicki, 2016-10-06 Methodological and metaphilosophical disputes in the contemporary philosophy of law are very vivid Basic issues remain controversial The purpose of the book is to confront approaches of Anglo Saxon and continental philosophy of law to the following topics the purpose of legal philosophy the role of disagreement in legal philosophy methodology of legal philosophy conceptual analysis and normativity of law We see those areas of legal metaphilosophy as drawing recently more and more attention in the literature The authors of particular chapters are internationally recognised scholars rooted in various traditions Anglo Saxon Gerald Postema Dennis Patterson Kenneth Ehrenberg Veronica Rodriguez Blanco Southern European Riccardo Guastini Manuel Atienza Nordic Torben Spaak German Ralf Poscher and Central European Jan Wolenski Tomasz Gizbert Studnicki Adam Dyrda They represent different approaches and different backgrounds The purpose of the volume is to contribute to the cross cultural discussions of fundamental issues of philosophy of law The Philosophical Review Jacob Gould Schurman, James Edwin Creighton, Frank Thilly, Gustavus Watts Cunningham, 1905 An international journal of general philosophy Taking Rites Seriously Francis J. Beckwith, 2015-11-12 Taking Rites Seriously is about how religious beliefs and religious believers are assessed by judges and legal scholars and are sometimes mischaracterized and misunderstood by those who are critical of the influence of religion in politics or in the formation of law Covering three general topics reason and motive dignity and personhood nature and sex philosopher and legal theorist Francis J Beckwith carefully addresses several contentious legal and cultural questions over which religious and non religious citizens often disagree the rationality of religious belief religiously motivated legislation human dignity in bioethics abortion and embryonic stem cell research reproductive rights and religious liberty evolutionary theory and the nature of marriage In the process he responds to some well known critics of public faith including Brian Leiter Steven Pinker Suzanna Sherry Ronald Dworkin John Rawls and Richard Dawkins as well as to some religiously conservative critics of secularism such as the advocates for intelligent design
