Naturalist Fiction The Entropic Vision:

Naturalist Fiction David Baguley, 1990 This is the first major study of naturalist fiction as a distinct literary genre It focuses mainly on French naturalist literature analysing a number of key works in detail but also draws examples from other national traditions particularly from the English novel Professor Baguley questions and revises many traditional assumptions on important theoretical issues such as the nature of literary history the concepts of realism and naturalism and the relations between science and literature He demonstrates the prevalence of certain recurrent generic patterns themes and techniques in the general body of naturalist literature ranging from disquieting tragic developments to the most outrageous ironic and parodic effects He argues persuasively that far from being a mere record of the external aspects of reality naturalist fiction is a literature of scandalous provocation which employs the strategies of realist art to convey a profoundly disturbing vision of that reality

Sexualizing Power in Naturalism Irene Gammel, 1994 Presenting a revisionary reading of German Canadian and American texts such as Fanny Essler Settlers of the Marsh and Sister Carrie Gammel English U of Prince Edward Island attributes to naturalism a predominantly male genre the appropriation of a disruptive female sexuality not so much to liberate it from Victorian repression as to contain it within the male boundaries of naturalism Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Narration and Description in the French Realist Novel James H. Reid, 2006-11-02 This book demonstrates instead the writers use of irony and allegory in struggling against the deceitfulness of their own texts

Edmond de Goncourt and the Novel Katherine Ashley, 2021-11-22 Edmond de Goncourt's four solo novels are not simply extensions of the Goncourt brothers joint project but attempts to deviate from the Naturalism with which their name had come to be associated By analysing paratexts the relationship between documentation and fiction as well as plot devices and themes this study links the evolution of Goncourt's fiction to wider literary debates surrounding Naturalism Decadence and the renewal of the novel in fin de siècle France In bringing Goncourt's writings to an English speaking public it will be of interest to students and scholars of the literary history of late nineteenth century France The Colonial Comedy:

Imperialism in the French Realist Novel Jennifer Yee, 2016-09-01 Nineteenth century French Realism focuses on metropolitan France with Paris as its undisputed heart Through Jennifer Yee's close reading of the great novelists of the French realist and naturalist canon Balzac Flaubert Zola Maupassant The Colonial Comedy reveals that the colonies play a role at a distance even in the most apparently metropolitan texts In what Edward Said called geographical notations of race and imperialism the presence of the colonies off stage is apparent as imported objects colonial merchandise and individuals whose colonial experience is transformative Indeed the realist novel registers the presence of the emerging global world system through networks of importation financial speculation and immigration as well as direct colonial violence and power structures The literature of the century responds to the last decades of French slavery and direct colonialism notably in Algeria but also economic imperialism and the extension of French influence elsewhere Far from imperialist triumphalism in the realist novel exotic objects are portrayed as fake or mass produced for the growing bourgeois market while economic imperialism is associated with fraud and manipulation The deliberate contrast of colonialism and exoticism within the metropolitan novel and ironic distancing of colonial narratives reveal the realist mode to be capable of questioning its own epistemological basis The Colonial Comedy argues for the existence in the nineteenth century of a Critical Orientalism characterized by critique of its own discursive foundations Using the tools of literary analysis within a materialist approach The Colonial Comedy opens up the domestic Paris Provinces axis to signifying chains pointing towards the colonial space

The Doctor-Patient Relationship and the Nineteenth-Century French Novel Sarah Jones, 2025-03-29 The Doctor Patient Relationship and the Nineteenth Century French Novel analyses the representation of the doctor patient relationship in the nineteenth century French novel notably in the words of Balzac Sand Stendhal and Zola It argues that the doctor patient relationship is represented in these novels as a site of interpersonal negotiation wherein the meaning of medical authority embodied experience and the spectre of illness and pain are mediated and reimaged This book highlights how the doctor patient relationship is often idealized by the novel wherein the doctor is characterised as a both dedicated to his patients and local community as well as being a God like master of life death and medical knowledge The volume suggests that the doctor patient encounter is often depicted as a separate although inherently related concept that undermines this idealisation of medical relationships The doctor patient encounter thereby questions the hegemonic power of medical practitioners over their patients by pointing towards how novels depict patients as resisting and even manipulating their doctors The book identifies and explores other important themes within the doctor patient relationship such as the medical gaze regard m dical power relationships and the use of embodied metaphor In particular the book highlights how the doctor patient relationship is often a confrontation between scientific knowledge and the experience of gender and disability The book's conceptual framework is derived from the critical medical humanities and the volume revitalises and reframes the doctor-patient relationship by considering the intrinsic slippage between idealised relationships and critical encounters The book uses close readings of its corpus to understand how medical practice is debated and undermined concurrently with its idealisation It places literary works within a new historical context by reading across novels within their medical and scientific context and situates them for the first time in the intellectual context of the critical medical humanities The book points forward to how nineteenth-century French novels can reform how the critical medical humanities views the medical relationship and the potential impact on real-world patients

Work and Leisure in Late Nineteenth-Century French Literature and Visual Culture C. White, 2014-06-25 In this engaging new study Claire White reveals how representations of work and leisure became the vehicle for anxieties and fantasies about class and alienation affecting in turn the ways in which writers and artists understood their own cultural work

Christian Krohg's Naturalism Øystein Sjøstad, 2017-11-01 The definitive English language account of a singular Nordic artist The Norwegian painter novelist and social critic Christian Krohg 1852 1925 is best known for creating highly political paintings of workers prostitutes and Skagen fishermen of the 1880s and for serving as a mentor to Edvard Munch One of the Nordic countries most avant garde naturalist artists Krohg was influenced by French thinkers such as Émile Zola Claude Bernard and Hippolyte Taine and he shocked the provincial sensibilities of his time His work reached beyond the art world when his book Albertine and its related paintings were banned upon publication Telling the story of a young seamstress who turns to a life of prostitution it galvanized support for outlawing prostitution in Norway but Krohg was also punished for the work's sexual content Examining the theories of Krohg and his fellow naturalists and their reception in Scandinavian intellectual circles Sjøstad places Krohg in an international perspective and reveals his striking contribution to European naturalism In the process Christian Krohg's Naturalism provides an unparalleled account of Krohg's art

Postcolonial Naturalism Eric D. Smith, 2023-11-16 Postcolonial Naturalism proposes an innovative periodizing schema for historicizing contemporary Anglophone fiction Engaging and revising the materialist paradigm of the Warwick Research Collective's concept of world literature Fredric Jameson's mapping of modernity's cultural periods and Christopher L Hill's positing of a transnational naturalism Eric D Smith theorizes postcolonial naturalism as a structurally determined cultural logic rather than as a literary technique or style Supported by careful theoretically and critically sophisticated analyses of exemplary literary works this important intervention invites us to reconsider the living history of aesthetic naturalism as well as its social and political implications for the practice of world literature in the aftermath of anticolonial resistance

Dirt in Victorian Literature and Culture Sabine Schülting, 2016-02-05 Addressing the Victorian obsession with the sordid materiality of modern life this book studies dirt in nineteenth century English literature and the Victorian cultural imagination Dirt litters Victorian writing industrial novels literature about the city slum fiction bluebooks and the reports of sanitary reformers It seems to be matter out of place challenging traditional concepts of art and disregarding the concern with hygiene deodorization and purification at the center of the civilizing process Drawing upon Material Cultural Studies for an analysis of the complex relationships between dirt and textuality the study adds a new perspective to scholarship on both the Victorian sanitation movement and

Victorian fiction The chapters focus on Victorian commodity culture as a backdrop to narratives about refuse and rubbish on the impact of waste and ordure on life stories on the production and circulation of affective responses to filth in realist novels and slum travelogues and on the function of dirt for both colonial discourse and its deconstruction in postcolonial writing They address questions as to how texts about dirt create the effect of materiality how dirt constructs or deconstructs meaning and how the project of writing dirt attempts to contain its excessive materiality Sch ltting discusses representations of dirt in a variety of texts by Charles Dickens E M Forster Elizabeth Gaskell George Gissing James Greenwood Henry James Charles Kingsley Henry Mayhew George Moore Arthur Morrison and others In addition she offers a sustained analysis of the impact of dirt on writing strategies and genre conventions and pays particular attention to those moments when dirt is recycled and becomes the source of literary creation
