Nature and Functions of Authority Yves Rene Marie Simon, 1940 The Nature of Law Daniel Mark, 2024-08-15

Challenging the prevailing understanding of the authority of law Daniel Mark offers a theory of moral obligation that is rooted both in command and in the law's orientation to the common good When and why do we have an obligation to obey the law Prevailing theories in the philosophy of law starting with the work of H L A Hart and Joseph Raz fail to provide definitive answers regarding the nature of legal obligation In this highly original and effective new work Daniel Mark argues that there is a prima facie moral obligation to obey the law simply because it is the law In Mark's view the best concept of law one that allows for the possibility of justified authority and obligation defines law as a set of commands oriented to the common good Legal obligation he proposes shares defining features with moral obligation and with religious obligation while aligning wholly with neither This philosophically coherent view of legal obligation offers a viable framework for analyzing important and seemingly paradoxical puzzles about the law such as why civil disobedience is punished as lawbreaking or why war crimes trials for legal but immoral acts present a moral quandary By reconciling the concept of law as command with the role of law in promoting the common good The Nature of Law provides an original and important scholarly contribution to the fields of legal philosophy and political thought The Nature and Function of Faith in the Theology of John Calvin Victor A. Shepherd, 2004 This fine study exemplifies the best kind of historical theology penetrating in its reading of the texts attentive both to the detail and to the scope of its subject matter and above all alert to the fact that in the history of Christian thought we are in the sphere of theology church and faith A wide circle of new readers will find great profit in studying this rich account of a rich theme John Webster University of Aberdeen The Performative Nature and Function of Isaiah 40-55 Jim W. Adams, 2006-10-01 This dissertation presents the basic philosophical concepts of speech act theory in order to accurately implement them alongside other interpretive tools The Moral Authority of Nature Lorraine Daston, Fernando Vidal, 2010-08-15 For thousands of years people have used nature to justify their political moral and social judgments Such appeals to the moral authority of nature are still very much with us today as heated debates over genetically modified organisms and human cloning testify The Moral Authority of Nature offers a wide ranging account of how people have used nature to think about what counts as good beautiful just or valuable The eighteen essays cover a diverse array of topics including the connection of cosmic and human orders in ancient Greece medieval notions of sexual disorder early modern contexts for categorizing individuals and judging acts as against nature race and the origin of humans ecological economics and radical feminism The essays also range widely in time and place from archaic Greece to early twentieth century China medieval Europe to contemporary America Scholars from a wide variety of fields will welcome The Moral Authority of Nature

account of the UK law of nature conservation It covers all the extensive laws introduced in recent years to protect and promote the natural world examining the operation of the legislation in practice Contextual Authority and Aesthetic Truth

James S. Hans, 1992-01-01 This book explores the relationship between authority and context and attempts to establish the ways in which authority is a function of a particular agent or set of agents and the degree to which it is a product of a context rather than an agent The work is not a sociological or psychological study but rather a literary philosophical speculation into the roots of our conceptions of authority It declares all authority to be aesthetic in nature and is based on an analysis of several key texts from various different cultural backgrounds Foucault Weber Nietzsche Confucius and Homer Fenwick
