Nature Man Woman:

Nature, Man and Woman Alan Watts, 1951-02-27 From perhaps the foremost interpreter of Eastern disciplines for the contemporary West and an author who had the rare gift of writing beautifully the unwritable Los Angeles Times a guide that draws on Chinese Taoism to reexamine humanity's place in the natural world and the relation between body and spirit Western thought and culture have coalesced around a series of constructed ideas that human beings stand separate from a nature that must be controlled that the mind is somehow superior to the body that all sexuality entails a seduction that in some way underlie our exploitation of the earth our distrust of emotion and our loneliness and reluctance to love Here Watts fundamentally challenges these assumptions drawing on the precepts of Taoism to present an alternative vision of man and the universe one in which the distinctions between self and other spirit and matter give way to a more holistic way of seeing

Nature, Man and Woman, 1958 Nature's Web Peter Marshall, 2015-02-12 This powerful book provides the first comprehensive overview of the intellectual roots of the worldwide environmental movement from ancient religions and philosophies to modern science and ethics and synthesizes them into a new philosophy of nature in which to ground our moral values and social action It traces the origins and evolution of the dominant worldview that has built our industrial technocratic man centered civilization and brought us to the current ecological crisis At the same time it uncovers an alternative cultural tradition in the world's different religions and philosophies and describes how these ideas are now surfacing and coalescing to form an ecological sensibility and a new vision of nature which recognizes the inter relatedness of all living things Finally this book integrates these varied traditions with modern physics and the science of ecology into a larger philosophical whole that provides the environmental movement with a comprehensive vision of an organic and sustainable society in harmony with nature As ecological disasters continue to threaten our planet becoming worse with every passing moment of indifference it has become clear that we must take action We must change our relationship with nature and return to the days when our lives were intimately connected to and dependent upon the natural world Nature's Web lays the foundations for that change by explaining where our complex ideas about nature come from why they are wrong and what we can do to change them The Sartrean Mind Matthew C. Mui, 2020-01-24 Jean Paul Sartre was one of the most important philosophers of the twentieth century His influence extends beyond academic philosophy to areas as diverse as anti colonial movements youth culture literary criticism and artistic developments around the world Beginning with an introduction and biography of Jean Paul Sartre by Matthew C Eshleman 42 chapters by a team of international contributors cover all the major aspects of Sartre's thought in the following key areas Sartre's philosophical and historical context Sartre and phenomenology Sartre existentialism and ontology Sartre and ethics Sartre and political theory Aesthetics literature and biography Sartre's engagements with other thinkers The Sartrean Mind is the most comprehensive collection on Sartre published to date It is essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy as

Secularizing the Sacred John E. Webster, Ronald S. Laura, 2016-04-26 This book explores one of the great paradoxes of our era Western culture has almost imperceptibly come to secularize the sacred while at the same time sacralizing the secular The authors endeavor to show the debilitating effects that this paradox has had on the foundations of Christian worship with special reference to the history of worship and in particular the Presbyterian Church in Australia The authors show how the theological predilection for minimization has become inextricably woven into the fabric of what we call the theory of transformative subjugation which drives the rationale for religious secularization The book argues that it is necessary to consider a serious reconstruction of theological education in which its framework is located in a specific Christian theory of knowledge which engenders the Lordship of Christ and encourages a spirit of transformative love and connectedness It is only in this context that the theology of worship and the beauty and usefulness of liturgical forms can be appreciated

Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas, 2021-06-07 In Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas argues that Eros is the final rejection of an alienated life in which humans are prevented from developing their human powers Eros in contrast is an overflowing of acting into new realities and new beauties a world in which human beings extend their powers and senses Nicholas uniquely interprets Alasdair MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism as a response to alienation defined as the divorce of fact from value However this account cannot address alienation in the form of the oppression of women or people of color Importantly it fails to acknowledge the domination of nature that blackens the heart of alienated life Alienation must be seen as a separation of the human from nature Nicholas turns to Aristotle first to uncover the way his philosophy embodies a divorce of human from nature then to reconstruct the essential elements of Aristotle's metaphysics to defend a philosophical anthropology based on Eros Love and Politics Persistent Human Desires as a Foundation for Liberation presents a critical theory that synthesizes MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism Frankfurt School Critical Theory and Social Reproduction Theory It will be of great interest to political theorists and philosophers
