Running with the Fairies Dennis Gaffin, 2012-04-25 Running with the Fairies Towards a Transpersonal Anthropology of Religion is a unique account of the living spirituality and mysticism of fairyfolk in Ireland Fairyfolk are fairyminded people who have had direct experiences with the divine energy and appearance of fairies and fairypeople who additionally know that they have been reincarnated from the Fairy Realm While fairies have been folklore superstition or fantasy for most children and adults now for the first time in a scholarly work highly educated persons speak frankly about their religious spiritual experiences journeys and transformations in connection with these angel like spirit beings Set in academic and popular historical perspectives this first scholarly account of the Fairy Faith for over a hundred years since believer Evans Wentz's 1911 published doctoral dissertation The Fairy Faith in Celtic Countries integrates a participatory going native anthropology with transpersonal psychology. Providing extensive verbatim interviews and discussions this path breaking work recognizes the reality of nature spirit beings in a Western context. Through intensive on site fieldwork the PhD cultural anthropologist author discovers, describes and interviews authentic mystics aligned with these intermediary deific beings. With an extensive introduction placing fairies in the context of the anthropology of religion, animism, mysticism and consciousness this daring ethnography considers notions of belief, perception and spiritual experience and with intricate detail extends the focus of anthropological research on spirit beings which previously have been considered as locally real only in indigenous and Eastern cultures.

The Findhorn Community Carol Riddell, 1991. The Findhorn Foundation, one of the first successful new age communities of present times, was founded in 1962 and continues to be an important part of a world wide movement for spiritual transformation. What is it like to live in the Findhorn Community today? What is the spiritual inspiration behind its existence and how has it changed and evolved over the years? How is it organised and managed? What kind of people join it and why and what changes do they go through? In this book Carol Riddell covers all this and more including the community's development from its early patriarchal basis to its first hesitant steps into spiritual democracy, its evolving relationship with the earth and the environment and the new businesses and independent projects springing up around it. She both sets the Findhorn Community in its current global context and shows how the process of creating a contemporary spiritual identity can unfold day by day through the ordinary activities of people living and working together. Integral Polity Ronnie Lessem, Ibrahim Abouleish, Louis Herman, 2016-05-23. Releasing the genius of an individual, an enterprise and a society is a central pre-occupation of the contemporary business environment. A fascinating approach to how we can begin to tackle this challenge is presented by the authors of Integral Polity. Integral spirituality, integral philosophy and the integral age at an overall or holistic level of consciousness has therefore become a strong enough idea to form the genesis of a movement over the course of the last half century. Taking as a starting point the ground breaking work of the Trans4m Centre for Integral Development, this book applies such an integral notion to the realms of business, economics and enterprise. To be successful an integral approach must recognise the nuances of its environment; an integral approach in India is different from that in Indonesia or Iceland and they may in fact complement rather than conflict. Therefore this book also provides a fascinating alignment of such integrality with and between different southern and eastern, northern and western worlds. Using case studies ranging across the globe, this review of a newly integral theory and practice provides a new lease of life to what may increasingly be perceived as the self seeking, insulated and occasionally violent and corrupt realm of the political.
