The Perfectibility of Human Nature in Eastern and Western Thought Harold Coward, 2012-02-01 How perfectible is human nature as understood in Eastern and Western philosophy psychology and religion Harold Coward examines some of the very different answers to this question He poses that in Western thought including philosophy psychology Judaism Christianity and Islam human nature is often understood as finite flawed and not perfectible in religion requiring God's grace and the afterlife to reach the goal By contrast Eastern thought arising in India frequently sees human nature to be perfectible and presumes that we will be reborn until we realize the goal the various yoga psychologies philosophies and religions of Hinduism and Buddhism being the paths by which one may perfect oneself and realize release from rebirth Coward uses the striking differences in the assessment of how perfectible human nature is as the comparative focus for this book
