Beyond Nature's Housekeepers Nancy C. Unger, 2012-10-05 From pre-Columbian times to the environmental justice movements of the present women and men frequently responded to the environment and environmental issues in profoundly different ways Although both environmental history and women's history are flourishing fields explorations of the synergy produced by the interplay between environment and sex sexuality and gender are just beginning Offering more than biographies of great women in environmental history Beyond Nature's Housekeepers examines the intersections that shaped women's unique environmental concerns and activism and that framed the way the larger culture responded Women featured include Native Americans colonists enslaved field workers pioneers homemakers municipal housekeepers immigrants hunters nature writers soil conservationists scientists migrant laborers nuclear protestors and environmental justice activists As women they fared thought and acted in ways complicated by social political and economic norms as well as issues of sexuality and childbearing Nancy C. Unger reveals how women have played a unique role for better and sometimes for worse in the shaping of the American environment

Powerless Tim Washburn, 2015-11-01 When a disaster plunges civilization back into the Dark Ages one man will do whatever it takes to reunite with his family in this apocalyptic thriller It strikes without warning A massive geomagnetic solar storm that destroys every power grid in the northern hemisphere In Boulder Colorado weather technicians watch in horror as civilization collapses around them Planes are falling out of the skies Cars are dead Pandemonium and terror grip the planet As nuclear reactors across North America face inevitable meltdowns the US President remains powerless in a heavily guarded White House From London to Boston to Anchorage there is no food no water no hope It's every man for himself and it will only get worse Army veteran Zeke Marshall is the one man prepared to handle a nightmare like this But when he tries to reunite with his family in Dallas across a lawless terrain as deadly as any battlefield he discovers there are worse things in life than war And what he'll have to do to survive is unthinkable The

Artist that Paints Pictures with Words Owen Cullimore,2006-01-01 The poems in this book are my own creation based on things I see hear or imagine A word or a song will click and into my head comes a picture which I have to put into words I like to think they are unique in their own way and hope they make a varied and interesting read They range from general poem form to story book features and hopefully some do paint pictures with words in the readers minds Nothing is ever meant to cause offence and hopefully the amusing ones will be taken in the light hearted spirit in which they were written
