Whales and Dolphins of Aotearoa New Zealand Barbara Todd, 2014 For centuries whales have captured our imaginations and ignited our emotions We have revered and mythologised them hunted them to the brink of extinction and passionately protected them But how much do we really know about whales Based on the hugely popular internationally touring Te Papa exhibition Whales Tohora a k a Whales Giants of the Deep this all new book brings these majestic marine mammals and their underwater world to life with a special focus on the whales and dolphins of the South Pacific From the first richly illustrated entertaining chapter readers are immersed in the salty sea the home of the whales to explore their amazing diversity biology and adaption to life in the oceans Throughout the book literally hundreds of breath taking photographs historical pictures astonishing facts and figures and informative illustrations and diagrams bring the whale world to life Here too are stories from people whose lives have been inextricably linked with whales from legendary South Pacific whale riders to international whale scientists to conservationists to former whalers and their families A powerful combination of storytelling science and culture that reveals the relationship between whales and humans now and into the future

International Books in Print , 1986 Partnership in Coastal Zone Management Jane Taussik, Julian Mitchell, 1996 Children, Nature and Cities Claire Freeman, Yolanda van Heezik, 2018-06-14 That children need nature for health and well being is widely accepted but what type of nature Specifically what type of nature is not only necessary but realistically available in the complex and rapidly changing worlds that children currently live in This book examines child nature definitions through two related concepts the need for connecting to nature and the processes by which opportunities for such contact can be enhanced It analyses the available nature from a scientific perspective of habitats species and environments together with the role of planning to identify how children in cities can and do connect with nature This book challenges the notion of a universal child and childhood by recognizing children s diverse life worlds and experiences which guide them into different and complex ways of interacting with the natural world Unfortunately not all children have the freedom to access the nature that is present in the cities where they live This book addresses the challenge of designing biodiverse cities in which nature is readily accessible to children

Seven Natural Wonders of Australia and Oceania Michael Woods, Mary B. Woods, 2009-01-01 Without any human influence nature has created extraordinary wonders from majestic mountains and bubbling volcanoes to amazing plants and animals These wonders are found across all the continents and oceans of this planet In a tour of the seven greatest wonders of Australia and Oceania we ll encounter the Outback Australia s enormous interior region The Outback is full of amazing land formations animals and plants We ll also see Mount Kilauea in Hawaii one of the world s most active volcanoes and New Caledonia a South Pacific island full of plants that have been around since the age of the dinosaurs We ll also discover the human legends and mysteries that surround these natural monuments What other natural wonders do Australia and Oceania hold To find out we ll explore a snow capped mountain a crystal blue lagoon and a vast wilderness in fascinating detail BBC Wildlife ,1990 BBC Worldwide ,1994
