КУЛЬТУРА ВЛАСТИ В КОНТЕКСТЕ ГЕО-ХРОНОПОЛИТИКИ

В эпоху перехода к постмодерну усиление значения культуры обусловлено радикальным изменением роли образования, науки, знания, информации в экономике и производстве.

Тенденции и перспективы развития образования нельзя рассматривать лишь сквозь призму потребностей экономики: необходим и целесообразен переход от экономоцентризма к социоцентризму и культуроцентризму. К числу первых культурно-образовательных задач относится повышение общего уровня образования, который способствует «переходу от человекозатратной к человекоберегающей эволюции». Чем выше уровень общего образования личности, тем меньше вероятность того, что ее интересы и устремления окажутся замкнутыми в рамках, положенных ее фактической социофессиональной принадлежностью и бытовым окружением.

Хронополитический мыслительный тип рассматривает культурные объекты, саму культуру не столько как «хранилище событий и фактов», сколько интерпретацию «реальной последовательности событий», прежде всего благодаря тому, что она, культура, так или иначе обнаруживает и фиксирует определенные ценностные моменты. Культурная политика отраслевого типа с традиционалистским приоритетом поддержания накопленного наследия, с потребительской индустрией удовольствий и наслаждений невольно явилась поддержкой материального, денежного накопительства. С первого плана ушел другой путь накопления — духовного совершенствования, духовного накопления, забылись те культурные образовательные традиции, которые воспитывают сдержанность и разумность в расходах. Образование XXI в. призвано изменить содержание и форму развития, необходимые для выживания цивилизации. Уже не количество накопленных материальных благ будет определять статус человека и общества, а уровень культуры, образования и разумно-достаточного хозяйствования, обеспечивающего сбережение невозобновляемых и воспроизводство важнейших возобновляемых ресурсов.

Отраслевой-геополитический принцип управления связан как с процессами развития рыночного хозяйства, концентрацией и централизацией производства, так и с давлением государства на общество, отчуждением разнообразных самостоятельных форм активности в пользу управления «сверху».

В XXI в. фактор культуры и культурной политики становится одним из доминирующих в современном управлении. Это обстоятельство определяет спрос на специалистов, владеющих «тонкими» управленческими технологиями, умением, способных создавать и реализовывать проекты социально-культурного развития — в масштабе от отдельных организаций до городского и регионального уровня.

Именно культура и образование в культурной политике должны стать приоритетными направлениями государственной политики — всеобщей формы осознания и выражения идеи духовности как универсального принципа целостного, практически действующего мировоззрения, стратегической цели, средства и способа политической деятельности российского государства нового столетия. Образование — это не передача фактов, здесь задействованы эмоции и душа, поэтому оно должно быть персональным. В мире, где поиск
