those conflicts as well as their significance within discourses on natural and cultural world heritage The examples from four continents range from the medieval Middle East already shaken by a convergence of ecological and social disaster to modern imaginary constructions of medieval Vikings the persistence of Indigenous knowledge in the Arctic literary poetics of patrimony and the heritage politics of Mediterranean urban architecture Authors ask which strategies societies in developing countries use to defend their cultural and ecological uniqueness and integrity while being penetrated by environmental hazards and hegemonizing Western forms of heritage culture or how western societies construct their own past in ways that are sometimes reminiscent of traditional imaginations of a pre modern past petrified eternally in an ideal moment of time Colonial and historical forms of heritagization of human and non human environments the essays show answer to pressing emotional needs for a sense of stability But the desire for nostalgia frequently commodified tends to collide with the similarly pressing need for political and economic survival in a rapidly changing world and in the face of accelerating extraction practices Without being able to solve this dilemma the volume makes an interdisciplinary contribution to taking intellectual stake of the asymmetrical politics and poetics of heritage and collective cultural memory

Beauty in Context Wilfried van Damme, 2021-11-01 This is the first study to survey the field of the anthropology of aesthetics which during the last few decades has emerged on the cross roads between anthropology and non Western art scholarship While critically examining the available literature thereby addressing such basic issues as the existence of aesthetic universals the author elaborates on a central thesis which concerns the relationship between aesthetic preference and sociocultural ideals Drawing on empirical data from several African cultures he demonstrates that varying notions of beauty are inspired by varying sociocultural ideals thus shedding light on the phenomenon of cultural relativism in aesthetic preference Emphasizing unity within diversity the systematic anthropological approach offered in this volume invites the reader to reconsider aesthetic preference from an empirical cross cultural and contextual perspective The New York Times Practical Guide to Practically Everything, Second Edition Amy D.
