Rodee,1981 Navajo Weaving in the Late Twentieth Century Ann Lane Hedlund,2022-05-03 According to the Navajos the holy people Spider Man and Spider Woman first brought the tools for weaving to the People Over the centuries Navajo artists have used those tools to weave a web of beauty a rich tradition that continues to the present day In testimony to this living art form this book presents 74 dazzling color plates of Navajo rugs and wall hangings woven between 1971 and 1996 Drawn from a private southwestern collection they represent the work of sixty of the finest native weavers in the American Southwest The creations depicted here reflect a number of styles revival sandpainting pictorial miniature sampler and a number of major regional variations from Ganado to Teec Nos Pos Textile authority Ann Hedlund provides an introductory narrative about the development of Navajo textile collecting including the shift of attention from artifacts to art and a brief review of the history of Navajo weaving She then comments on the shaping of the particular collection represented in the book offering a rich source of knowledge and insight for other collectors Explaining themes in Navajo weaving over the quarter century represented by the Santa Fe Collection Hedlund focuses on the development of modern rug designs and the influence on weavers of family community artistic identity and the marketplace She also introduces each section of plates with a description of the representative style its significance and the weavers who perpetuate and deviate from it In addition to the textile plates Hedlund s color photographs show the families landscapes livestock hogans and looms that surround today s Navajo weavers Navajo Weaving in the Late Twentieth Century explores many of the important connections that exist today among weavers through their families and neighbors and the significant role that collectors play in perpetuating this dynamic art form For all who appreciate American Indian art and culture this book provides invaluable guidance to the fine points of collecting and a rich visual feast

Indigenous American Women Devon Abbott Mihesuah,2003-01-01 Oklahoma Choctaw scholar Devon Abbott Mihesuah offers a frank and absorbing look at the complex evolving identities of American Indigenous women today their ongoing struggles against a centuries old legacy of colonial disempowerment and how they are seen and portrayed by themselves and others Mihesuah first examines how American Indigenous women have been perceived and depicted by non Natives including scholars and by themselves She then illuminates the pervasive impact of colonialism and patriarchal thought on Native women s traditional tribal roles and on their participation in academia Mihesuah considers how relations between Indigenous women and men across North America continue to be altered by Christianity and Euro American ideologies Sexism and violence against Indigenous women has escalated economic disparities and intratribal factionalism and culturalism threaten connections among women and with men and many women suffer from psychological stress because their economic religious political and social positions are devalued In the last section Mihesuah explores how modern American Indigenous women have empowered themselves tribally nationally or academically Additionally she examines the overlooked role that Native women played in the Red Power movement as well as some key differences between Native women feminists and activists

Creative Destruction Tyler Cowen,2009-01-10 A Frenchman rents a Hollywood movie A Thai schoolgirl mimics Madonna Saddam Hussein chooses Frank Sinatra s My Way as the theme song for his fifty fourth birthday It is a commonplace that globalization is subverting local culture But is it helping as much as it hurts In this strikingly original treatment of a fiercely debated issue Tyler Cowen makes a bold new case for a more sympathetic understanding of cross cultural trade Creative Destruction brings not stale suppositions but an economist s eye to bear on an age old question Are market exchange and aesthetic quality friends or foes On the whole argues Cowen in clear and vigorous prose they are friends Cultural destruction breeds not artistic demise but diversity Through an array of colorful examples from the areas where globalization s critics have been most vocal Cowen asks what happens when cultures collide through trade whether technology destroys native arts why and whether Hollywood movies rule the world whether globalized culture is dumbing down societies everywhere and if national cultures matter at all Scrutinizing such manifestations of indigenous culture as the steel band ensembles of Trinidad Indian handweaving and music from Zaire Cowen finds that they are more vibrant than ever thanks largely to cross cultural trade For all the pressures that market forces exert on individual cultures diversity typically increases within society even when cultures become more like each other Trade enhances the range of individual choice yielding forms of expression within cultures that flower as never before While some see cultural decline as a half empty glass Cowen sees it as a glass half full with the stirrings of cultural brilliance Not all readers will agree but all will want a say in the debate this exceptional book will stir New Mexico Magazine ,1980 American Indians of the Southwest Bertha P. Dutton,1983-03 More than providing a compendium of southwestern Indian history and culture this remarkable book gives the reader an understanding of and appreciation for the unique lifeways of these peoples whose philosophy the author believes may be our one great resource for peace The Desert is No Lady Vera Norwood,Janice J. Monk,1997 Over the past century women artists and writers have expressed diverse creative responses to the landscape of the Southwest The Desert Is No Lady provides a cross cultural perspective on women by examining Anglo Hispanic and Native American women s artistic expressions and the effect of their art in defining the southwestern landscape The Desert Is No Lady has been made into a motion picture of the same title by Women Make movies New York NY A beautifully crafted book Although it varies in intensity the response of women to the environment is virtually always different from the male frontiersman s view of the land as inanimate boundless conquerable and controllable Polly Wells Kaufman in Women s Review of Books A powerful masterpiece Eve Gruntfest in The Professional Geographer
