that autonomous syntax need not exist in a vacuum Her work has highlighted the importance of incorporating the effects of discourse and information structure on the syntactic representation This book aims to invoke Jelinek s work either in substance or spirit The focus is on Jelinek s influential Pronominal Argument Hypothesis as an non configurational language the influence of discourse related interface phenomena on syntactic structure the syntactic analysis of the grammaticalization interactions between morphology phonology and phonetics and foundational issues about the link between formal grammar and function of language as well as the methodological issues underlying the different approaches to linguistics

Telicity and Durativity Andrea Luise Wilhelm,2007-01-22 This book studies the linguistic representation of events by examining the relevance of two salient event characteristics telicity and durativity to the grammatical system of natural language The study of events and of event characteristics is an important testing ground for theories on the boundary between extralinguistic and linguistic knowledge and on the relation between semantics and syntax Telicity and durativity are notions which have become increasingly influential in both the semantic and the syntactic i e grammaticalized representation of events The book furthers the understanding of events through the comparison of two genetically and typologically distinct languages German and D ne Sulin Chipewyan Athapaskan an indigenous language of Northwestern Canada It contains the first in depth documentation of the aspectual system of D ne Sulin and a careful analysis of the aspectual behaviour of German particle verbs A stringent methodology considers semantic pragmatic and grammatical factors in both languages The data reveal that telicity and durativity belong to profoundly different semantic and grammatical domains and that neither notion is grammaticalized universally While both notions are represented semantically in German as well as in D ne Sulin telicity is grammaticalized only in the former and durativity is grammaticalized only in the latter
