The Navajo And Pueblo Silversmiths John Adair,2015-11-06 Probably no native American handicrafts are more widely admired than Navajo weaving and Navajo and Pueblo silver work This book contains the first full and authoritative account of the Indian silver jewelry fashioned in the Southwest by the Navajo and the Zuni Hopi and other Pueblo peoples It is written by John Adair a trained ethnologist who has become a recognized expert on this craft A volume conspicuously pleasing in its format and so strikingly handsome in its profuse illustrations as to rivet your attention once it chances to fall open With the care of a meticulous and thorough scholar the author has told the story of his several years investigation of jewelry making among the Southwestern Indians So richly decorative are the plates he uses for his numerous illustrations showing the jewelry itself the Indians working at it and the Indians wearing it that the conscientious narrative is surrounded by an atmosphere of genuinely exciting visual experience The Dallas Times Herald The Navajo and Pueblo Silversmiths provides a full history of the craft and the actual names and localities of the pioneer craftsmen who introduced the art of the silversmith to their people Despite its present high stage of development with its many subtle and often exquisite designs the art of working silver is not an ancient one among the Navajo and Pueblo Indians There are men still living today who remember the very first silversmiths Navajo Weavers & Silversmiths Dr. Washington Matthews,1968 The Navajos Oscar H. Bureau of American Ethnology,1886 More Than Curiosities Susan L. Meyn,2001-01-01 Beginning in the 1920s anthropologists traders and other admirers of traditional Native American cultures appalled by the degradation of fine crafts into tourist trinkets began cultivating a fine arts market for indigenous textiles jewelry ceramics and basketry In More Than Curiosities Susan Labry Meyn explores how this grassroots revival led to the founding of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board in 1935 Meyn demonstrates how the Board and its activities such as development and marketing of quality arts and crafts targeted loan programs and the creation of artisans cooperatives not only aided in the development of a source of sustained income for Native artists but also were pivotal in overcoming the larger Euro American indifference toward Native culture

Under the leadership of René Harnoncourt the Board facilitated cross cultural understanding and provided the mechanisms that allowed Native American artists to revive traditional practices and adapt them to an Anglo market. Meyn's novel study will become an invaluable contribution to scholars of the period artists and anyone interested in Native American studies.

Encyclopedia of Nevada Indians Donald Ricky, 2000-01-01 There is a great deal of information on the native peoples of the United States which exists largely in national publications. Since much of Native American history occurred before statehood there is a need for information on Native Americans of the region to fully understand the history and culture of the native peoples that occupied Nevada and the surrounding areas. The first section contains an overview of early history of the state and region. The second section contains an A to Z dictionary of tribal articles and biographies of noteworthy Native Americans that have contributed to the history of Nevada. The third section contains several selections from the classic book A Century of Dishonor which details the history of broken promises made to the tribes throughout the country during the early history of America. The fourth section offers the publisher's opinion on the government dealings with the Native Americans in addition to a summation of government tactics that were used to achieve the suppression of the Native Americans. Here Come the Navaho! Ruth Murray Underhill, 1966 United States Educational, Scientific and Cultural Motion Pictures and Filmstrips Suitable and Available for Use Abroad U.S. National Commission for UNESCO.
