Ne Zhenskoe Eto Delo:

Networks in the Russian Market Economy M. Lonkila, 2010-11-17 A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org This book examines the significance of networks among the firms operative in the contemporary Russian software industry in the St Petersburg region

Russian Aviation, Space Flight and Visual Culture Vlad Strukov, Helena Goscilo, 2016-09-13 Among the many successes of the Soviet Union were inaugural space flight ahead of the United States and many other triumphs related to aviation Aviators and cosmonauts enjoyed heroic status in the Soviet Union and provided supports of the Soviet project with iconic figures which could be used to bolster the regime's visions self confidence and the image of itself as forward looking and futuristic This book explores how the themes of aviation and space flight have been depicted in film animation art architecture and digital media Incorporating many illustrations the book covers a wide range of subjects including the representations of heroes the construction of myths and the relationship between visual art forms and Soviet Russian culture and society

Film and Identity in Kazakhstan Rico Isaacs, 2018-02-07 Cinema and nationalism are two fundamentally modern phenomena but how have films shaped our understanding of the creation the imagining of Central Asian nations Here Rico Isaacs uses cinema as an analytical lens to explore how the Kazakh national identity has been constructed and contested Drawing on an analysis of Kazakh films from the last century and featuring new interviews with directors and critics involved in the Central Asian film industry his book traces the construction of nationalism within Kazakh cinema from the country's inception as a Soviet Republic to a modern independent nation Isaacs identifies four narratives since the collapse of the Soviet Union a warrior like ethnic narrative rooted in the 18th Century struggles against the Mongolian Oirat tribes a civic inspired narrative cemented in the Stalinist deportations of the 1930s and 40s a religious narrative founded within the mystic and philosophical religion of Tengrism and the cult of the Sky God and a socio economic narrative which roots Kazakh nationhood and identity in contemporary social divisions the lived day to day experiences of ordinary citizens and the struggles they face with authority These last two tropes demonstrate how cinema has emerged as a site of dissent against the country's authoritarian regime under President Nazarbayev Film and Identity in Kazakhstan advances our understanding of Kazakhstan and nationalism by demonstrating the multiple and inessential character of each and illustrates the important role of cinema in contesting political power in the post Soviet space

Beyond Totalitarianism Michael Geyer, Sheila Fitzpatrick, 2009 These essays rethink the nature of Stalinism and Nazism and establish a new methodology for viewing their histories that goes well beyond outdated twentieth century models of totalitarianism ideology and personality They offer a new understanding of the intertwined trajectories of socialism and nationalism in European and global history

New Women's Writing in Russia, Central and Eastern Europe Rosalind Marsh, 2020-12-07 Since the late 1980s there has been an explosion of women's writing in Russia Central and Eastern Europe greater than in any other cultural period This book which contains contributions by scholars and writers from many different countries aims to address the gap in literature and debate that exists in relation to this subject We investigate why women s writing has become so prominent in post socialist countries and enquire whether writers regard their gender as a burden or on the contrary as empowering We explore the relationship in contemporary women s writing between gender class and nationality as well as issues of ethnicity and post colonialism No More Heroines? Sue Bridger, Rebecca Kay, Kathryn Pinnick, 2005-08-04 With the collapse of Soviet rule and the emergence of independent Russia the image of Russian women in the Western imagination has changed dramatically The robust tractor drivers and athletes have been replaced by glamorous but vulnerable beauty queens or the dishevelled and downcast women trading goods on the streets The authors of this work take a closer look at what lies behind the above images and how Russian women are coping with a very different sort of life The main focus is on the effect of unemployment on Russian women and how they are coping with it Based on case studies and personal interviews carried out in the Moscow region in 1993 94 No More Heroines will provide both specialist and non specialist alike with access to the thinking of women and their organisations in Russia today
