Mathuray,2017-05-26 Winner of the British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies BACLS 2017 Edited Collection Prize This book is a challenging and engaging collection of original essays on the novels of Alan Hollinghurst Britain's foremost gay writer and the English novel's master stylist The essays engage the precarious and shifting relationship between sex and literary sensibility in his novels and thus also attempt to establish the parameters of a new critical discourse for future research on Hollinghurst's novel queer theory and the contemporary literary representations of masculinity and sexuality By coupling the consideration of Hollinghurst's aesthetics his sensuously evocative style to an interrogation of the social political and sexual currents in his texts the contributors of this collection provide distinctive interpretations of Hollinghurst's novels from Hollinghurst's uncovering of a gay artistic heritage to his re-signification of earlier English literary styles from his engagement with the Symbolist fin de siècle to his critique of aestheticism etc whilst paying close attention to the formally innovative qualities of his texts
