Reducing Adolescent Risk Toward An Integrated Approach:

Reducing Adolescent Risk Daniel Romer, 2003-04 Current policies treat adolescent risk behaviours as separate problems requiring separate solutions ignoring the overlap of many risk behaviours This text seeks to move beyond the fractured approach of preventing one kind of behaviour at a time and suggests more comprehensive prevention strategies Leading Psychoeducational Groups for Children and Adolescents Janice L. DeLucia-Waack, 2006-05-03 This book provides readers with direction on how to organize psychoeducational groups while also helping them enhance skills for effectively leading such groups all in one comprehensive volume Offering an applied pragmatic approach author Janice L DeLucia Waack uniquely integrates research and practice to suggest valuable leadership strategies while addressing special issues such as children of divorce anger management bullying behaviors and much more Religion, Family, and Chinese Youth Development Jerf W. K. Yeung, 2020-12-30 Religion is a fundamental cultural factor profoundly influential on human mental health and behavioural choices and in addition family is the most proximal and intimate socialization agent contributive to youth development Religion Family and Chinese Youth Development explores how religious involvement of Chinese parents affects their psychological health and family socialization which leads to various aspects of the development of Chinese youths Specifically a structural relationship between religion family socialization and youth development was constructed theoretically and tested empirically in the Chinese context which can portray the linked lives of religious involvement of Chinese parents parental psychological health family processes parenting practices the development of psychosocial maturity and the internalizing and externalizing outcomes of Chinese youths Undeniably the findings of this book provide insightful social and policy implications for researchers and human service practitioners related to Chinese societies By clearly depicting and empirically testing the connections between religion family and Chinese youth development the book can be a reference for clergy family practitioners researchers policy makers management of NGOs and graduate students of social sciences Community Interventions and AIDS Edison J. Trickett, Willo Pequegnat, 2005-09-01 Interventions with individuals who are at risk for HIV AIDS have been shown to have a positive short term impact This book provides an overarching framework based on an ecological approach for designing and implementing HIV AIDS intervention with longer term community impact It explains the basic aspects of this ecological perspective and provides examples of how it works It is specifically concerned with the question of the degree to which individuals behavior change can be sustained and whether interventions adequately respond to environmental risk factors Problem Gambling in Europe Gerhard Meyer, Tobias Hayer, Mark Griffiths, 2009-04-29 Problem Gambling in Europe Challenges Prevention and Interventions Edited by Gerhard Meyer University of Bremen Germany Tobias Hayer University of Bremen Germany Mark Griffiths Nottingham Trent University United Kingdom As a leisure activity gambling dates back to ancient times More recently the surge in avenues for gambling casinos sports betting lotteries and remote media e g Internet mobile phone interactive television among them
