Bosia, Sandra M.

McEvoy, Momin Rahman, 2020 Struggles for LGBT rights and the security of sexual and gender minorities are ongoing urgent concerns across the world For students scholars and activists who work on these and related issues this handbook provides a unique interdisciplinary resource In chapters by both emerging and senior scholars the Oxford Handbook of Global LGBT and Sexual Diversity Politics introduces key concepts in LGBT political studies and queer theory Additionally the handbook offers historical geographic and topical case studies contextualized within theoretical frameworks from the sociology of sexualities critical race studies postcolonialism indigenous theories social movement theory and international relations theory It provides readers with up to date empirical material and critical assessments of the analytical significance commonalities and differences of global LGBT politics The forward looking analysis of state practice transnational networks and historical context presents crucial perspectives and opens new avenues for debate dialogue and theory Anthropology and Egalitarianism Eric Gable, 2010-12-03 Anthropology and Egalitarianism is an artful and accessible introduction to key themes in cultural anthropology Writing in a deeply personal style and using material from his fieldwork in three dramatically different locales Indonesia West Africa and Monticello the historic home of Thomas Jefferson Eric Gable shows why the ethnographic encounter is the core of the discipline s method and the basis of its unique contribution to understanding the human condition Gable weaves together vignettes from the field and discussion of major works as he explores the development of the idea of culture through the experience of cultural contrast anthropology s fraught relationship to racism and colonialism and other enduring themes Beholding Beauty Domenico Ingenito, 2020-12-29 Beholding Beauty Sa di of Shiraz and the Aesthetics of Desire in Medieval Persian Poetry explores the relationship between sexuality politics and spirituality in the lyrics of Sa di Shirazi d 1292 CE one of the most revered masters of classical Persian literature Relying on a variety of sources including unstudied manuscripts Domenico Ingenito presents the so called inimitable smoothness of Sa di s lyric style as a serene yet multifaceted window into the uncanny beauty of the world the human body and the realm of the unseen The book constitutes the first attempt to study Sa di s lyric meditations on beauty in the context of the major artistic scientific and intellectual trends of his time By charting unexplored connections between Islamic philosophy and mysticism obscene verses and courtly ideals of love Ingenito approaches Sa di s literary genius from the perspective of sacred homoeroticism and the psychology of performative lyricism in their historical context White Gold Susan Falls, 2017-09-01 Women have shared breast milk for eons but in White Gold Susan Falls shows how the meanings of capitalism technology motherhood and risk can be understood against the backdrop of an emerging practice in which donors and recipients of breast milk are connected through social media in the southern United States Drawing on her own experience as a participant Falls describes the sharing community She also presents narratives from donors doulas medical professionals and recipients to provide a holistic ethnographic account Situating her subject within cross cultural comparisons of historically shifting attitudes about breast milk Falls shows how sharing white gold seen as a scarce valuable even mysterious substance is a mode of enacting parenthood gender and political values Though breast milk is increasingly being commodified Falls argues that sharing is a powerful and empowering practice Far from uniform participants may be like minded about parenting but not other issues so their acquaintanceships add new textures to the body politic In this interdisciplinary account White Gold shows how sharing simultaneously reproduces the capitalist values that it disrupts while encouraging community making between strangers Gender in Amazonia and Melanesia Thomas A. Gregor, Donald F. Tuzin, 2001-11-01 One of the great riddles of cultural history is the remarkable parallel that exists between the peoples of Amazonia and those of Melanesia Although the two regions are separated by half a world in distance and at least 40 000 years of history their cultures nonetheless reveal striking similarities in the areas of sex and gender In both Amazonia and Melanesia male female differences infuse social organization and self conception They are the core of religion symbolism and cosmology and they permeate ideas about body imagery procreation growth men s cults and rituals of initiation The contributors to this innovative volume illuminate the various ways in which sex and gender are elaborated obsessed over and internalized shaping subjective experiences common to entire cultural regions and beyond Through comparison of the life ways of Melanesia and Amazonia the authors expand the study of gender as well as the comparative method in anthropology in new and rewarding directions Sex Appeal Paul Abramson, 2010-02-02 Paul Abramson s concise reader friendly Sex Appeal charts a thoughtful course between extremes to present six essential principles for sexual health and happiness Do No Harm Celebrate Sex Be Careful Know Yourself Speak Up Speak Out and Throw No Stones Abramson elaborates each of these principles in an engaging often entertaining way and shows how sex can be a fun safe and life enhancing experience if approached in the right spirit and with the necessary information to make wise sexual choices The Mana of Mass Society William Mazzarella, 2017-10-24 We often invoke the magic of mass media to describe seductive advertising or charismatic politicians In The Mana of Mass Society William Mazzarella asks what happens to social theory if we take that idea seriously How would it change our understanding of publicity propaganda love and power Mazzarella reconsiders the concept of mana which served in early anthropology as a troubled bridge between primitive ritual and the fascination of mass media Thinking about mana Mazzarella shows means rethinking some of our most fundamental questions What powers authority What in us responds to it Is the mana that animates an Aboriginal ritual the same as the mana that energizes a revolutionary crowd a consumer public or an art encounter At the intersection of anthropology and critical theory The Mana of Mass Society brings recent conversations around affect sovereignty and emergence into creative contact with classic debates on religion charisma ideology and aesthetics Research for the Psychotherapist Jay L. Lebow, Paul H. Jenkins, 2018-05-04 While empirical scientific research has much to offer to the practice oriented therapist in training it is often difficult to effectively engage the trainee beginning practitioner or graduate student in the subject of research This fully revised and expanded edition of Research for the Psychotherapist is an engaging accessible guide that bridges the gap between gathering
