School Of Terror:

School of Terror Vince Robinson, 1980 Postmemories of Terror S. Kaiser, 2005-12-10 Postmemories of Terror focuses on how young Argentineans remember the traumatic events of the military dictatorship 1976-83. This fascinating work is based on oral histories with sixty-three young people who were too young to be directly victimized or politically active during this period. All were born during or after the terror and possessed an entirely mediated knowledge of it. Susana Kaiser explores how the post-dictatorship generation was reconstructing this past from three main sources: inter-generational dialogue, education, and the communication media. These conversations discuss selected and recurrent themes like societal fears and silences, remembering and forgetting, historical explanations, and accountability. Together, they contribute to our understanding of how communities deal with the legacy of terror.

The Tale of Terror Edith Birkhead, 1921 A history of the thriller from myth and folk tale through Walpole and Mrs Radcliffe to Poe and Le Fanu.

Gothic Readings Rictor Norton, 2005-04-01 This is an anthology of Gothic Literature set within the context of contemporary criticism and readers' responses. It includes selections from the major practitioners and many of their followers, as well as contemporary reviews, private letters, and diaries, chapbooks, and contemporary anecdotes about dramatic performances and the design of theatre sets. The selections provide representative samples of the major genres: historical gothic, the Radcliffe school of terror, the Lewis school of horror, tragic melodrama, comic parody, supernatural poetry, and ballads, book reviews, and literary criticism and anti-Gothic polemic.
