Crime, Media and Culture Greg Martin, 2018-12-07 Working broadly from the perspective of cultural criminology Crime Media and Culture engages with theories and debates about the nature of media audience relations examines representations of crime and justice in news media and fiction and considers the growing significance of digital technologies and social media The book discusses the multiple effects media representations of crime have on audiences but also the ways media portrayals of crime and disorder influence government policy and lawmaking It also considers the processes by which certain stories are selected for their newsworthiness Also examined are the theoretical conceptual and methodological underpinnings of cultural criminology and its subfields of visual criminology and narrative criminology Drawing on case studies and empirical examples from the increasingly blurred worlds of reality and entertainment the dynamics of crime media and culture are illuminated across a range of chapters covering topics that include moral panics folk devils and trial by media fear of crime cop shows and courtroom dramas female criminality and child on child killing serial killers surveillance new media and policing organized crime and state crime Crime Media and Culture will be an invaluable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in criminology and media studies The book will also prove useful for lecturers and academic researchers wishing to explore the intersections of crime media and cultural inquiry The Role of the Media in Criminal Justice Policy Natalia Antolak-Saper, 2022-09-09 This book provides a socio legal examination of the media's influence on the development and implementation of criminal justice policy. This impact is often assumed And especially in the wake of high profile crimes the press is routinely observed calling for sentences to be harsher and for governments to be tougher on crime But how do we know that there is a connection To answer this question the book draws on a case study of the media reporting of the rape and murder of Jill Meagher in Melbourne Australia as well as other well known cases including those of James Bulger Sarah Payne Stephen Lawrence and Michael Brown among others Deploying a socio legal framework to examine how the media s often powerful and emotive narratives play a crucial role in the development and implementation of law the book provides a deep and critical reflection on its influence The book concludes with a number of suggestions for media reform both to moderate the media's influence and to incorporate a broader range of viewpoints This multi disciplinary book will appeal to scholars and students in sociolegal studies criminology and criminal law as well as those working in relevant areas in sociology and media studies Loss, Dying and Bereavement in the Criminal Justice System Sue Read, Sotirios Santatzoglou, Anthony Wrigley, 2018-03-22 Life is characterised by movement change and development including transitions losses and grief People experiencing loss must learn to accommodate it and sometimes relearn new roles Whether the offender is accommodating general loss such as transition the loss of others or facing their own impending death the bereavement process can become a particularly complicated experience for those involved in the criminal justice system Criminal offenders may be excluded from participating in grief rituals and may receive few explicit opportunities to talk about a loss they ve experienced sometimes resulting in disenfranchised grief Informing thinking around assessment care and support procedures this volume seeks to bring together a range of perspectives from different disciplines on crucial issues surrounding the impact of loss death dying and bereavement for criminal offenders The book will explore inherent challenges and responses to the criminal justice system by considering to what extent offenders loss death dying and bereavement experiences have been or should be recognised in policy and practice. The first section considers theoretical approaches to loss the next section translates these issues using professional perspectives to explore practical applications and the final section introduces an offender perspective Through identifying challenges and consolidating evidence this multidisciplinary book will interest researchers interested in loss and bereavement in vulnerable communities concepts of disenfranchised grief end of life care and mental healthcare in the criminal justice system

DeKeseredy, Molly Dragiewicz, 2018-04-09 The main objective of the second edition of the Routledge Handbook of Critical Criminology is twofold 1 to provide original chapters that cover contemporary critical criminological theoretical offerings generated over the past five years and 2 to provide chapters on important new substantive topics that are currently being studied and theorized by progressive criminologists Special attention is devoted to new theoretical directions in the field such as southern criminology queer criminology and green criminology. The diverse chapters cover not only cutting edge theories but also the variety of research methods used by leading scholars in the field and the rich data generated by their rigorous empirical work In addition some of the chapters suggest innovative and realistic short and long term policy proposals that are typically ignored by mainstream criminology These progressive strategies address some of the most pressing social problems facing contemporary society today which generate much pain and suffering for socially and economically disenfranchised people The new edition of the Handbook is a major work in redefining areas within the context of international multidisciplinary critical research and in highlighting emerging areas such as human trafficking Internet pornography and image based sexual abuse It is specifically designed to be a comprehensive resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students researchers and policymakers Comparative Restorative Justice Theo Gavrielides, 2021-09-20 This edited collection introduces and defines the concept of comparative restorative justice putting it in the context of power relations and inequality It aims to compare the implementation and theoretical development of restorative justice internationally for research policy and practice In Part I this volume compares practices in relation to the implementing environment be that cultural political or societal Part II looks at obstacles and enablers in relation to the criminal justice system and considers whether inquisitorial versus adversarial jurisdictions have impact on how restorative justice is regulated and implemented Finally Part III compares the reasons that drive governments regional bodies and practitioners to implement restorative justice and whether these impetuses impact on ultimate delivery Featuring fifteen original chapters from diverse authors and practitioners this will serve as a key resource for those working in social justice or those seeking to understand and implement the tenets of restorative justice comparatively American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Project Reports of the National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice ,1972 Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1995 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities Jeffrey S. Bachman, Esther Brito Ruiz, 2024-11-01 This is the first textbook of its kind to amass cases of genocide and other mass atrocities across the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries that have largely been pushed to the periphery of Genocide Studies or forgotten altogether Divided into four thematic sections Genocide and Imperialism War and Genocide State Repression Military Dictatorships and Genocide and Human Caused Famine Attrition and Genocide A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities covers five continents including case studies from Biafra Yemen Argentina Russia China and Bengal They range from the French conquest of Algeria in the mid nineteenth century to the Yazidi genocide perpetrated by the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria between 2014 and 2017 and show that at times of rising authoritarianism military conquest and weaponization of hunger lines between what is war and what is genocide are increasingly blurred By including genocides and mass atrocities that are often overlooked this volume is crucial to the ongoing debates about whether this atrocity or that one amounts to genocide By including key points events terms and critical questions throughout this is the ideal textbook for undergraduate students who study genocide mass atrocities and human rights across the globe
