School Libraries And The Electronic Community:

School Libraries and the Electronic Community Laurel Clyde, 1997-05-22 Summarizes the responses of school librarians to questions about how they learned to use the Internet and for what purposes Leading from the Library Shannon McClintock Miller, William Bass, 2019 Written by a seasoned librarian and an education leader this book guides librarians in becoming leaders in their school communities with strategies on developing partnerships empowering students and more The modern school library supports education in a variety of ways One essential role librarians play is that of a leader who works collaboratively to build relationships mold culture and climate and advocate for the needs of students and the community In this book a librarian and an education leader team up to reflect on the librarian's ability to build connections in two ways First they discuss the benefits of bringing the outside world into the library through the use of social media videoconferencing and other tools that allow librarians to partner with others Then they expand upon these connections by addressing how librarians can lead in the greater educational community by sharing resources and strategies and partnering with school leaders to tell the story of the school community This book will Highlight the potential of librarians to empower their students their schools and their communities and be learning leaders in the digital age Include stories of partnerships from librarians and administrators illustrating how they can collaborate to create change by harnessing the influence of the school library program to enhance the educational experience Explore how librarians serve as mentors to their students delving into many topics that define digital age literacy including the librarian's role in reading advocacy information validity digital citizenship and research Make direct connections to the ISTE Standards for Students Educators and Education Leaders in each chapter Through this book librarians will discover the influence they can have on the school community as the library becomes the heart of the school a place where problems are solved content is explored connections are made and discovery happens Online and CD-ROM Databases in School Libraries, 1989 Serving Library Users from Asia John Hickok, 2019-06-12 Asian populations are among some of the fastest growing cultural groups in the US While books on serving other target groups in libraries have been published e.g. disabled Latino seniors etc few books on serving library users of Asian heritage have been written Thus the timely need for this book Rather than a generalized overview of Asians as a whole this book has 24 separate chapters each on 24 specific Asian countries cultures of East Southeast and South Asia with a wealth of resources for understanding interacting with outreaching to and serving library users of each culture Resources include cultural guides both print and online language helps with sample library vocabulary Asian booksellers nationwide cultural groups professional literature and more Resources and suggestions are given for all three types of libraries public school and academic making this book valuable for all librarians The demographics of each Asian culture numbers and distribution plus history of immigration and international student enrollment is also featured As a bonus each chapter spotlights a US public school and academic library providing model outreach to Asian library users

Additionally this book provides a detailed description and analysis of libraries in each of the 24 Asian countries The history development facilities conditions technology classification systems and more of public school and academic libraries are all discussed with detailed documentation Country conditions influencing libraries and library use are also described literacy levels reading cultures languages and writing systems educational systems and more Based on the author s 15 years of research and travels to Asia this work is a must have for all librarians The Digital Principal Hughes, Janette,Burke, Anne,2014-04-21 Although educational leaders do not have to be digital experts they play an important role in supporting learning communities that embrace technological innovation and promote systemic change The Digital Principal shows administrators how to apply their leadership skills to a learning environment rich in technology and provide opportunities for both students and teachers to work and learn within the digital world From the basics of digital literacy to connecting to the digital community this timely book establishes an effective framework for integrating technology into instruction and learning
