Schooling Desire Literacy Cultural Politics And Pedagogy:

Schooling Desire Ursula Anne Margaret Kelly, 2013 Schooling Desire Ursula Anne Kelly, 1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Schooling Desire Ursula Anne Margaret Kelly, 1997 Ursula A Kelly draws on radical theories of literacy culture identity and pedagogy to frame the culture of pedagogy as it relates to human desire Examples from auto biography classroom practices and popular media provide the means by which the author highlights some of the pedagogical dilemmas facing literacy practices which often work to silence the cultural politics of identity and desire Schooling Desire Ursula A. Kelly, 2014-04-08 Ursula A Kelly draws on radical theories of literacy culture identity and pedagogy to frame the culture of pedagogy as it relates to human desire Examples from auto biography classroom practices and popular media provide the means by which the author highlights some of the pedagogical dilemmas facing literacy practices which often work to silence the cultural politics of identity and desire Disability Studies in Education Susan Lynn Gabel, 2005 As a field of inquiry disability studies in education stands at the broad intersection of disability studies and educational studies This book introduces graduate students educational researchers and teacher educators to the range of scholarly inquiry emerging from this exciting new field Susan L Gabel pulls together a sampling of the vast array of available scholarship that includes readings that intersect curriculum theory critical policy analysis personal narrative and much more Although disability studies in education has only recently been recognized as a field of inquiry with an identifiable body of literature the chapters in this book present the work of some of the major scholars of disability studies in education Storying the World Rita Irwin, Erika Hasebe-Ludt, Anita Sinner, 2019-03-06 Bringing together Carl Leggo's most significant contributions over the past 30 years this book celebrates his work in curriculum studies English language arts literacy and life writing poetry and arts education Organized around three thematic sections Loving Language Narrating Ruminations and Storying the World the volume highlights his efforts across interrelated fields of inquiry including narrative and poetic inquiry contemplative inquiry and social fiction The text extends the discussion and conversation of curriculum studies and is greatly enhanced with a selection of original poetry by this incomparable poet scholar and teacher Carl Leggo is renowned not only for his ground breaking work at the University of British Columbia but also for his tremendous influence on graduate education across the English speaking world This volume honours that immense contribution in today's time of academic change and development Oral and Written Narratives and Cultural Identity Francisco Cota Fagundes, Irene Maria Blayer, 2007 This interdisciplinary volume centers on the interrelations of storytelling and various manifestations of cultural identity from written to oral and from autobiographical to regional and national Indigenous storytelling as well as storytelling for and by children and the elderly are the main focus of these essays Together these fifteen texts make a significant contribution toward a deeper understanding of various aspects of textual and oral narrative they broaden the lines of inquiry into multidisciplinary and multicultural interests particularly those centering on the construction expression and contextualization of various types of identity and they illustrate the deployment of storytelling not only as testimony contestation and subversion but also as peacebuilding Many countries languages and cultures are herein represented from the United States and Canada to Japan Singapore and Malaysia from English to Japanese to Greek to Italian to the languages of indigenous peoples of Latin America and the Philippines

Education in an Age of Nihilism Nigel Blake,Paul Smeyers,Richard Smith,Paul Standish,2012-12-06 This book addresses concerns about educational and moral standards in a world increasingly characterised by nihilism On the one hand there is widespread anxiety that standards are falling on the other new machinery of accountability and inspection to show that they are not The authors in this book state that we cannot avoid nihilism if we are simply laissez faire about values neither can we reduce them to standards of performance nor must we return to traditional values They state that we need to create a new set of values based on a critical assessment of contemporary practice in the light of a number of philosophical texts that address the question of nihilism including the work of Nietzsche

Five Pedagogies, a Thousand Possibilities Michalinos Zembylas,2007-01-01 Five Pedagogies A Thousand Possibilities aims at providing the groundwork for articulating sites of enriching pedagogies so that critical hope and the possibility of transformation may stay alive The emotional experiences of unknowing silence passion desire forgiveness and reconciliation play an important political role in constituting critical resistance The implications of these ideas are discussed in the context of contemporary concerns about social justice conflict hope and despair These implications help us realize the potential of unknowing silence passion desire forgiveness and reconciliation as crucial pedagogical tasks and negotiate a hope that is truly critical As an alternative to pedagogies that negate the ethical and political implications of teachers and students emotional lives the present book demonstrates the need for pedagogies that enable the development of criticality without being overcome by despair The book will be of interest to academics researchers educators undergraduate and graduate students in the fields of social sciences and education and particularly in the subfields of philosophy of education curriculum theory teacher education and multicultural education

Identity Matters Donna LeCourt,2012-02-01 Identity Matters explores the question that consistently plagues composition teachers why do their pedagogies so often fail Donna LeCourt suggests that the answer may lie with the very identities values and modes of expression higher education cultivates In a book that does precisely what it theorizes LeCourt analyzes student written literacy autobiographies to examine how students interact with and challenge cultural theories of identity This analysis demonstrates that writing instruction does indeed matter and has a significant influence on how students imagine their potential in both academic and cultural realms LeCourt paints not only a compelling and vexing picture of how students interact with academic discourse as both mind and body but also offers hope for a reconceived pedagogy of social material writing practice

Narrating Transformative Learning in Education M. Gardner,U. Kelly,2008-02-04 This collection highlights the experiences of an international group of educators as they explore the art of teaching the philosophy of learning and the tensions of working across socially constructed borders Actively Seeking Inclusion Julie Allan,2003-09-02 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Public Spaces, Private Lives Henry A. Giroux,2003 While many of the essays in this book were written before 9 11 they point to a number of important issues such as the commercialization of public life the stepped up militarization racial profiling and the threat to basic civil liberties that have been resurrected since the terrorist attacks Public Spaces Private Lives serves to legitimate the claim that there is much in America that has not changed since 9 11 Rather than a dramatic change what we are witnessing is an intensification and acceleration of the contradictions that threatened American democracy before the tragic events of 9 11 Hence Public Spaces Private Lives offers a context for both understanding and critically engaging the combined threats posed by the increase in domestic militarization and a neoliberal ideology that substitutes market values for those democratic values that are crucial to rethinking what a vibrant democracy would look like in the aftermath of September 11th

Feminist Engagements Kathleen Weiler,2002-06-01 Feminist Engagements is a collection of essays by some of the top names in feminist education in which they read and revision the works of the major twentieth century theorists in education and cultural studies Focus on Curriculum Dennis M. McInerney,Shawn Van Etten,2005-03-01 There are many teaching and curriculum programs that attempt to make education relevant to the wider sociocultural environment of learners Volume 5 focuses on research on curriculum and teaching from a sociocultural perspective Authors will discuss exemplary examples of research on curriculum initiatives teaching resources and teaching approaches that reflect a concern for sociocultural issues broadly defined while also mapping out implications future issues and future research agendas There will be chapters on reading mathematics science language social science history music health education religious and moral education information technology vocational education and multicultural studies The text will be relevant to educators across all levels of education Provocations Cathryn McConaghy,2006 Textbook

Migration and Education in a Multicultural World U. Kelly,2009-02-16 Arising from the legacies of the twentieth century unprecedented worldwide migration unrelenting global conflict and warring unchecked materialist consumption and unconscionable environmental degradation are important questions about the toll of loss such changes exact individually and collectively As large scale and ubiquitous as these changes are their deep specificity re inscribes the importance of place as a critical construct Attending to such specificity emphasizes the interconnections between contexts and broader movements and remains a prudent route to articulating critical interconnections among places and peoples in complex times This book of essays turns to such specificity as a means to examine the inflections of migration on identity displacement disorientation loss and difference as sites of both regression and possibility Fusing autobiography and cultural analysis it provides a framework for a critical education attuned to such concerns Communities of Difference P. Trifonas,2005-05-05 This book will look at the implications of educational practices in communities that are differentiated by issues of language culture and technology Trifonas argues that a community is at once a gathering of like minded individuals in solidarity of purpose and conviction and also a gathering that excludes others The chapters in this collection will reveal this tension between theory and practice in order to engage the models of community and the theories of difference that support them as a way to teach to learn and to know Re-imagining Curriculum Lynn Quinn,2019-11-15 The book argues that academics academic developers and academic leaders need to undertake curriculum work in their institutions that has the potential to disrupt common sense notions about curriculum and create spaces for engagement with scholarly concepts and theories to re imagine curricula for the changing times Now more than ever in the history of higher education curriculum practices and processes need to be shared the findings of research undertaken on curriculum need to be disseminated to inform curriculum work We hope the book will enable readers to look beyond their contextual difficulties and constraints to find spaces where they can dream and begin to implement innovative and creative solutions to what may seem like intractable challenges or difficulties Impure Acts Henry A. Giroux,2013-05-13 Henry A Giroux challenges the contemporary politics of cynicism by addressing a number of issues including the various attacks on cultural politics the multicultural discourses of academia the corporate attack on higher education and the cultural politics of the Disney empire
