Henri Lefebvre and Education Sue Middleton, 2013-11-07 During his lifetime Henri Lefebvre 1901-1991 was renowned in France as a philosopher sociologist and activist Although he published more than 70 books few were available in English until The Production of Space was translated in 1991 While this work often associated with geography has influenced educational theory's spatial turn educationalists have yet to consider Lefebvre's work more broadly This book engages in an educational reading of the selection of Lefebvre's work that is available in English translation After introducing Lefebvre's life and works the book experiments with his concepts and methods in a series of five spatial histories of educational theories In addition to The Production of Space these studies develop themes from Lefebvre's other translated works Rhythmanalysis The Explosion the three volumes of Critique of Everyday Life and a range of his writings on cities Marxism technology and the bureaucratic state In the course of these inquiries Lefebvre's own passionate interest in education is uncovered his critiques of bureaucratised schooling and universities the analytic concepts he devised to study educational phenomena and his educational methods Throughout the book Middleton demonstrates how Lefebvre's conceptual and methodological tools can enhance the understanding of the spatiotemporal location of educational philosophy and theory Bridging disciplinary divides it will be key reading for researchers and academics studying the philosophy sociology and history of education as well as those working in fields beyond education including geography history cultural studies and sociology Charity and

Sylvia Rachel Hope Cleves, 2014-05-01 Conventional wisdom holds that same sex marriage is a purely modern innovation a concept born of an overtly modern lifestyle that was unheard of in nineteenth century America But as Rachel Hope Cleves demonstrates in this eye opening book same sex marriage is hardly new Born in 1777 Charity Bryant was raised in Massachusetts A brilliant and strong willed woman with a clear attraction for her own sex Charity found herself banished from her family home at age twenty She spent the next decade of her life traveling throughout Massachusetts working as a teacher making intimate female friends and becoming the subject of gossip wherever she lived At age twenty nine still defiantly single Charity visited friends in Weybridge Vermont There she met a pious and studious young woman named Sylvia Drake The two soon became so inseparable that Charity decided to rent rooms in Weybridge In 1809 they moved into their own home together and over the years came to be recognized essentially as a married couple Revered by their community Charity and Sylvia operated a tailor shop employing many local women served as guiding lights within their church and participated in raising their many nieces and nephews Charity and Sylvia is the intimate history of their extraordinary forty four year union Drawing on an array of original documents including diaries letters and poetry Cleves traces their lives in sharp detail Providing an illuminating glimpse into a relationship that turns conventional notions of same sex marriage on their head and reveals early America to be a place both more diverse and more accommodating than modern society might imagine Charity and Sylvia is a significant contribution to our limited knowledge of LGBT history in early America Sylvia
