Barton,2009-04-14 This second edition guides principals through the process of creating a proactive student centered school safety program and offers new case studies vignettes and strategies Transforming Schools into Community Learning

Centers Stephen Parson,2013-10-18 This book shows how schools can provide services to all members of the community not just to children of school age It also demonstrates how a school s instructional program and facilities can include community resources The Management of Educational Institutions H. L. Gray,2018-05-11 Originally published in 1982 This book is a collection of specially commissioned papers by writers who are closely involved in education management as practitioners researchers and trainers It provides readers with an insight to some of the major theoretical considerations in managing educational institutions It offers some guidelines for rethinking the nature of education management and the development of an appropriate rationale and philosophy Readers will obtain a knowledge of humanistic approaches to education management and gain an understanding of how the complex organizations called schools and colleges etc can be sensitively managed Industrial perspectives are more sensitive to the needs of education than is often thought frequently more insightful and concerned than those of theorists who have only educational experience The elements of sociology; a text-book for colleges and schools Franklin Henry Giddings, 1898 New Schools for a New Century

Tewel, 1995-02-28 Combining both the theory as well as the practice of the education reform process this unique breakthrough volume focuses on every aspect of the change process in high school education today Short and long term strategies for each phase of the process provoking creating managing supporting and sustaining reform are covered Based on the real life experiences of the author and others this book recognizes that most high school reform is short lived It stresses the ways to create and maintain positive change making the process a long lasting worthwhile mission for the school s leadership and ultimately the students Short useful summaries of high school reform provide true life pictures of what really happens in the midst of changing the way educational institutions operate These stories cover school based management collaborative or shared leadership school within a school groupings interdisciplinary instruction school based budgeting new models for professional development and others Through these examples readers can understand how reform strategies work and how to apply and adapt them to their own situations As an added feature this book provides the names and locations of schools attempting each reform as well as the names and addresses of school reform networks that readers can contact in their own efforts Exploring Education Alan R. Sadovnik, Peter Cookson, Jr., Susan Semel, Ryan

Coughlan, 2017-10-10 This much anticipated fifth edition of Exploring Education offers an alternative to traditional foundations texts by combining a point of view analysis with primary source readings Pre and in service teachers will find a solid introduction to the foundations disciplines history philosophy politics and sociology of education and their application to educational issues including school organization and teaching curriculum and pedagogic practices education and inequality and school reform and improvement This edition features substantive updates including additions to the discussion of neo liberal educational policy recent debates about teacher diversity updated data and research and new selections of historical and contemporary readings At a time when foundations of education are marginalized in many teacher education programs and teacher education reform pushes scripted approaches to curriculum and instruction Exploring Education helps teachers to think critically about the what and why behind the most pressing issues in contemporary education Making Schools Work Kathy Hirsh-Pasek, Roberta Michnick Golinkoff, Kimberly Nesbitt, Carol Lautenbach, Elias Blinkoff, Ginger Fifer, 2022 If we teach in the way that human brains learn both students and their teachers will thrive This book aligns evidence from the learning sciences on how and what students need to learn with classroom practice pre K 12 It demonstrates with hands on examples how a change in educational mindset rather than in curriculum can improve student outcomes on both standardized tests and a breadth of 21st century skills skills Written collectively by classroom teachers administrators parents and learning scientists this book shows readers how to co construct and reimagine an optimal educational system Making Schools Work offers three case studies of schools including a statewide system that are all realizing a 6 Cs approach to learning focused on collaboration communication content critical thinking creative innovation and confidence The text documents the ever evolving implementation process as well as outcomes and the ongoing work of stakeholders Readers can use this resource to create an education for all children that is culturally responsive inclusive effective and fun Book Features Helps educators teach in the way that human minds learn Jointly written in accessible language by teachers administrators parents and learning scientists Offers hands on ways to reimagine classrooms without investing in new curricula Puts teachers in the driver s seat reminding them of why they teach Provides culturally responsive inclusive effective and fun strategies Offers children the possibility of learning the skills they will need for 21st century skills success Most of us agree that it is critical at this moment in time to reimagine what school could be This reimagination must be informed by the best available science and built on current educational wisdom found in our schools This book does just that and makes clear that more playful learning across the K 12 school system would be the most natural way to help all students learn the 21st century knowledge and skills they need in life From the Foreword by Pasi Sahlberg author of Finnish Lessons 3 0 What Can the World Learn from Educational Change in Finland and professor of education Southern Cross University Lismore Australia

The SAGE Handbook of School Organization Michael Connolly,David H. Eddy-Spicer,Chris James,Sharon D.

Kruse,2018-12-10 The SAGE Handbook of School Organization provides a substantial review of the history current status and future prospects of the field of school organization Bringing together chapters exploring key issues important debates and points of tension the Handbook highlights school and system organisational structure processes and dynamics coupled with insights into important theoretical foundations from diverse perspectives This volume is designed to provide a much needed critically informed and coherent account of the field against a backdrop of increasing complexity in which schooling as an institution and schools as organisations operate Transforming the Culture of Schools Jerry Lipka,With Gerald V.

Mohatt,Esther Ilutsik,2014-01-21 This book speaks directly to issues of equity and school transformation and shows how one indigenous minority teachers group engaged in a process of transforming schooling in their community Documented in one small locale far removed from mainstream America the personal narratives by Yup k Eskimo teachers address the very heart of school reform The teachers struggles portray the first in a series of steps through which a group of Yup k teachers and university colleagues began a slow process of reconciling cultural differences and conflict between the culture of the school and the culture of the community The story told in this book goes well beyond documenting individual narratives by providing examples and insights for others who are involved in creating culturally responsive education that fundamentally changes the role and relationship of teachers and community to schooling
