READING AND COMPREHENSION

CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS

Examples of Christmas traditions are rooted in religious stories from across the world. Many more traditions are cultural traditions and vary across the world. We will explore some of the origins of Christmas traditions. Before you read, think about the Christmas traditions of your culture.

CHRISTMAS TREE

Evergreen trees have been used to celebrate Winter holidays for thousands of years. Pagans and Christians made evergreens to decorate their homes to remind them of the evergreen nature of spring.

There are conflicting arguments about where the first "Christmas Tree" originated. T. Allen, T. Allen, and T. Allen, who wrote about the first Christmas tree, that they found the first Christmas tree. They were both set up in the same square and decorated with the same people and decorations for the winter.

The first person to bring a tree into his home was Martin Luther, a 16th-century German minister.

In fact, there were accounts of decorated trees in Germany. They were decorated with apples, oranges, and other fruits, and they were decorated with small evergreen trees.

In the 18th century, German families in America had a tree set up in their homes.

There became a new tradition in the 19th century. People began to use the word "Christmas" and "Xmas" to describe the holiday.

CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS

What first used evergreen to decorate their homes?

What was the first person to bring a Christmas tree into their home?

What were the first Christmas trees decorated with?

Why do people give gifts at Christmas? What does it represent?
