Science in Latin America Juan José Saldaña, 2009-06-03 Science in Latin America has roots that reach back to the information gathering and recording practices of the Maya Aztec and Inca civilizations Spanish and Portuguese conquerors and colonists introduced European scientific practices to the continent where they hybridized with local traditions to form the beginnings of a truly Latin American science As countries achieved their independence in the nineteenth century they turned to science as a vehicle for modernizing education and forwarding progress In the twentieth century science and technology became as omnipresent in Latin America as in the United States and Europe Yet despite a history that stretches across five centuries science in Latin America has traditionally been viewed as derivative of and peripheral to Euro American science To correct that mistaken view this book provides the first comprehensive overview of the history of science in Latin America from the sixteenth century to the present Eleven leading Latin American historians assess the part that science played in Latin American society during the colonial independence national and modern eras investigating science s role in such areas as natural history medicine and public health the eighteenth century Enlightenment politics and nation building educational reform and contemporary academic research The comparative approach of the essays creates a continent spanning picture of Latin American science that clearly establishes its autonomous history and its right to be studied within a Latin American context

Rethinking Science Education in Latin-America Ainoa Marzabal, Cristian Merino, 2024-04-16 This edited volume presents an integrated vision around the processes of science teaching and learning in Latin American schools Existing scientific literacy findings varies greatly between students influenced by gender ethnicity and socio economic status as well as location This book provides systematic and cohesive insights grounded in the existing literature to move towards equitable science education It critically analysis existing literature from the field to guide future research It discusses various research projects developed in Latin America as examples for researchers and educators It provides guidelines to improve science teaching and learning processes at school level By bringing together the main contributions of the region to this project it allows findings to be accessible to non Spanish speaking readers This book provides contextualized insight into the main topics in the field rethinking science education in Latin America and identifying reform efforts It is of interest to teachers teacher educators researchers and policy makers

Science and Empires P. Petitjean, Cathérine Jami, A.M. Moulin, 2012-12-06 SCIENCE AND EMPIRES FROM THE INTERNATIONAL COLLOQUIUM TO THE BOOK Patrick PETITJEAN Catherine JAMI and Anne Marie MOULIN The International Colloquium Science and Empires Historical Studies about Scientific Development and European Expansion is the product of an International Colloquium Sciences and Empires A Comparative History of Scientific Exchanges European Expansion and Scientific Development in Asian African American and Oceanian Countries Organized by the REHSEIS group Research on Epistemology and History of Exact Sciences and Scientific Institutions of CNRS National Center for Scientific Research the colloquium was held from 3 to 6 April 1990 in the

UNESCO building in Paris This colloquium was an idea of Professor Roshdi Rashed who initiated this field of studies in France some years ago and proposed Sciences and Empires as one of the main research programmes for the The project to organize such a colloquium was a bit REHSEIS group of a gamble Its subject reflected in the title Sciences and Empires is not a currently accepted sub discipline of the history of science rather it refers to a set of questions which found autonomy only recently The terminology was strongly debated by the participants and as is frequently suggested in this book awaits fuller clarification 1986 International Association of Universities,Franz Eberhard,Ann C.
