Nomination of Dr. M. Rupert Cutler, Dr. Dale Ernest Hathaway, Robert Haldeman Meyer, Alex P. Mercure, and Dr. Howard W. Hjort United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry, 1977 The Securitization of Climate Change: Australian and United States' Military Responses (2003 - 2013) Michael Durant Thomas, 2017-07-25 This book examines how the armed forces of the United States and Australia have responded to the threat posed by climate change to national security Drawing on established securitisation frameworks Copenhagen and Paris Schools the author uses a combination of quantitative and qualitative techniques to systematically examine more than 3 500 speeches policies and doctrinal articles since 2003 Importantly the author undertakes an examination of the intersection between the political and the military spheres probing the question of how ideology has influenced the military's uptake on the issue In this context the author identifies the difficulty of an ostensibly apolitical institution responding to what has become both a hyper political issue and an unprecedented security threat A close examination of the key political actors their intent outlook and political mandate for broader climate action is therefore crucial to understanding the policy freedom and constraints within which military leaders operate The book

consists of eight chapters divided into four parts focusing on perspectives and methodological insights empirical case studies case study comparison and concluding observations Offers a rare and systematic examination of military climate policy by a military officer from Australia Identifies a divergence of Australian military climate policy from that of the US military during the Obama Administration Develops a unique method that quantifies climate security enabling a graphical representation for quick and ready reference ideally suited to policy makers Nomination of Dale Ernest Hathaway to be Under Secretary of Agriculture for Internal Affairs and Commodity Programs United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry, 1979 Educational Leadership Norris M. Haynes, Sousan Arafeh, Cynthia McDaniels, 2014-12-30 Educational Leadership Perspectives on Preparation and Practice identifies core knowledge and skills that educational leaders should be exposed to during pre service preparation and throughout in service professional development The contributors discuss established pedagogical and experiential learning models as well as provocative new paradigms of their own to help prepare leaders and reinforce leadership effectiveness Implicit throughout the book are five key leadership themes sensitivity to student development and learning continual professional development responsiveness to developmental socio cultural and learning contexts accepting accountability and advancing the field The contributors draw upon many collective years of experience as educators and supervisors of educational leaders to offer perspectives on the application and integration of core leadership principles in leadership preparation and practice Pluralist Readings in Economics: Key Concepts and Policy Tools for the 21st Century Maria Alejandra Madi, 2017-06-15 The era of globalization has brought about unprecedented social political and environmental challenges for policy makers around the world due to the global impact of economic decisions In view of these challenges economics as a discipline needs to be taught with the goal of broadening the dialogue on social responsibility and developing a new pluralist culture of decision making which is inclusive to different schools of economic thought Pluralist Readings in Economics Key concepts and policy tools for the 21st century highlights the long standing debates regarding economic systems business models criteria of justice and economic policies by providing conceptual openings to economic theory in an engaging and accessible way The author provides broad coverage of relevant topics through the selection of influential economic thinkers and introduces the reader to their ideas context and relevant interpretations While dealing with complex problems the author goes beyond commonly known concepts by presenting questions on the historical context of globalization The study of economic concepts in this way leads to asking new questions concerning various issues relevant to economics The goal of the text is to provide an interdisciplinary perspective to readers in order to equip them with information that is key to address global economic challenges Thus this pluralist approach calls for a reflection of the evolution of global social and economic conditions to demonstrate problem solving approaches that align with the goal of addressing these challenges Pluralist Readings in Economics Key concepts and policy tools for the 21st century is suitable to a broad interdisciplinary readership as it will benefit all those who seek to better understand the
