Making Room Recovering Hospitality As A Christian Tradition:

Making Room Christine D. Pohl, 1999-08-03 For most of church history hospitality was central to Christian identity Yet our generation knows little about this rich life giving practice Study Guide for Making Room Christine D. Pohl, Pamela J. Buck, 2001 Christine D Pohl's book Making Room Recovering Hospitality as a Christian Tradition has helped foster renewal of the central but long neglected practice of Christian hospitality This new study guide for Making Room provides a variety of ways in which people can learn more about the practice Designed for use by small groups though individuals will also profit from it the study guide is divided into nine lessons corresponding to the chapters of Making Room Each lesson begins with an introduction briefly highlighting the main points of the book followed by sections on group building Scripture discussion reflection and personal application Each lesson also provides aids for group leaders and suggested activities to help participants begin to make the practice of hospitality part of their daily life Making Room, 25th anniversary edition

Christine D. Pohl, 2024-01-16 Hospitality is the heart of Christian ministry To the early Christians hospitality was central to the gospel mission This hospitality did not consist of entertaining neighbors but welcoming the stranger especially those who could not return the favor Yet despite urgent need hospitality has fallen by the wayside Christine Pohl's classic work Making Room first spoke to this issue in 1999 And it is just as relevant today with the refugee crisis the rise in homelessness and growing loneliness and isolation This revitalized edition with a new foreword and afterword by the author introduces the theology of hospitality to a new generation Pohl combines rich biblical and historical research with experience in contemporary Christian communities including the Catholic Worker L Abri Good Works Inc and others Pragmatic and thoughtful Pohl deals frankly with both the blessings and the boundaries of hospitality Readers will find a wealth of wisdom to revive authentic hospitality in their ministry Practicing the Kingdom Justin Bronson Barringer, Maria Russell

Kenney, 2022-02-07 Throughout her academic career Christine D Pohl has helped the church rediscover practices that used to be central to its life like hospitality community and friendship Perhaps best known for her groundbreaking Making Room Recovering Hospitality as a Christian Tradition she has also contributed significantly to discussions on Christian community feminism and the academy and the practice of friendship Yet behind this lies a lifetime of lived theology that informs her life and her work both inside and outside the academy Containing biblical systematic and moral theology these essays are scriptural and liturgical multidisciplinary and missional Several of them could be described as offering essays of lived theology writing and reflecting from within years of action and contemplation They build upon particularly fruitful aspects of Pohl's work through expansion clarification and occasional disagreement A mix of scholars and practitioners colleagues former students and friends the contributors represent a wide variety of theoretical and practical expertise This volume honors Pohl most when its readers choose to take the wisdom within its pages and embody that in life together Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 7, Number 2 Jason King, 2018-06-28 Catholic Peacemaking Edited by Jason King Military

The Faithful Librarian Garrett B. Trott, 2019-09-18 What do Christianity and librarianship have in common Netherlands Prime Minister and theologian Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 was among the first in the modern era to attempt to rejoin the dichotomy of sacred vs secular study when he said no single piece of our mental world is to be hermetically sealed off from the rest Over the years a number of publications have followed Kuyper s lead yet little has been written on the subject since Greg A Smith s notable Christian Librarianship 2002 Building on Smith s work this volume seeks to bridge the sacred secular divide with an exploration of how Christianity and the gospel are manifested through the profession of librarianship

Religious Ethics and Migration Ilsup Ahn, 2013-11-12 What does it mean to provide justice for undocumented workers who have been living among us without proper legal documentation How can we do justice to the undocumented migrants who have been doing the low skilled low paid jobs unwanted by citizens Why should we even try to do justice for people who violate the laws of the society Religious Ethics and Migration Doing Justice to Undocumented Workers addresses these questions from a distinctive religious ethical perspective the Christian theology of forgiveness and radical hospitality In answering these questions the author employs in depth interdisciplinary dialogues with other relevant disciplines such as immigration history global economics political science legal philosophy and social theory He argues that the political appropriation of a Christian theology of forgiveness and the radical hospitality modeled after it are the most practical and justifiable solutions to the current immigration crisis in North America Critical and interdisciplinary in its approach this book offers a unique comprehensive and balanced perspective regarding the urgent immigration crisis

Reading the New Testament in the Manifold Contexts of a Globalized World Eve-Marie Becker, Jens Herzer, Angela Standhartinger, Florian Wilk, 2022-12-12 This volume gathers the perspectives of teachers in higher education from all over the world on the topic of New Testament scholarship The goal is to understand and describe the contexts and conditions under which New Testament research is carried out throughout the world This endeavor should serve as a catalyst for new initiatives and the development of questions that determine the future directions of New Testament scholarship At the same time it is intended to raise awareness of the global dimensions of New Testament scholarship especially in relation to its impact on socio political debates The occasion for these reflections are not least the present questions that have been posed with the corona pandemic and have received a focus on the system relevance of churches which is openly questioned by the media The church and theology must face this challenge Towards that end it is important to gather impulses and suggestions for the discipline from a variety of contexts in which different dimensions of context related New Testament research come to the fore Disclosing Church Clare Watkins, 2020-03-05 From 2006 to 2011 researchers at Heythrop College and the Oxford Centre for ecclesiology and Practical Theology OxCEPT Ripon College Cuddesdon worked on a theological and action research project Action Research Church and Society ARCS 2010 saw the publication of Talking About God in Practice Theological Action research and Practical Theology SCM which presented in an accessible way the work of ARCS and its developing methodology This turned out to be a landmark study in the praxis of Anglican and Catholic ecclesiology in the UK showing how theology in these differing contexts interacted with the way in which clergy and congregations lived out their religious convictions This book is a direct follow up to that significant work authored by one of the original researchers providing a systematic analysis of the impact of the theological action research methodology and its implications for a contemporary ecclesiology The book presents an ecclesiology generated from church practice drawing on scholarship in the field as well as the results of the theological action research undertaken It achieves this by including real scenarios alongside the academic discourse This combination allows the author to tease out the complex relationship between the theory and the reality of church Addressing the need for a more developed theological and methodological account of the ARCS project this is a book that will be of interest to scholars interested not only Western lived religion but ecclesiology and theology more generally too Hosted by God Jenni Ho-Huan, 2025-10-07 It is common to experience moments when we feel discouraged confused or plain angry at the circumstances of our lives What if these moments are gifts meant to awaken us to something deeper and better than our own machinations Instead of stuffing away these uncomfortable emotions and ploughing on we can embrace a new approach to living one where God graciously hosts us through life's ebbs and flows towards wholeness and flourishing Through pastoral insight authentic testimonies a fresh look at popular scriptural stories poetry and reflection questions Jenni Ho Huan invites us to ponder and posture ourselves to really live with a new paradigm it is God's gracious hospitality that undergirds all of life and he calls us to partner him to create better communities of love and grace

Reforming Memory

Robert Vosloo, 2017-10-12 Although we should acknowledge the fragility of memory we should nevertheless affirm the remarkable ability of memory to reform and transform our identity Our memories and ways of remembering are however often marked by trauma and violence Memory therefore not merely reforms it too is in need of reformation redemption and transformation With this emphasis in mind Reforming Memory grapples with the question what a responsible engagement with the past entails also for Christians and churches associated with the Reformed tradition The history of Reformed churches in South Africa is one can argue a deeply divided and ambivalent one The same figures are heroes to some and villains to others historic events are deeply ambiguous and conflicting views surround different discourses Yet the histories and perhaps futures of these churches and traditions are inextricably interwoven Reforming Memory fundamentally combines an interest in the notion of e memorye with an interest in South African Reformed theology and history Central is the question how should we remember and represent the past responsibly The essays collected in this book engage in different ways with this question attending in the process to some episodes in the history of the Dutch Reformed Church some influential Reformed theologians and some important Reformed practices and confessional documents
