God's Eye Frank Fox,1999 Book Review Index ,1998 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation The Visual Language of Technique Luigi Cocchiarella,2015-03-14 The book is inspired by the first seminar in a cycle connected to the celebrations of the 150th anniversary of the Politecnico di Milano Dealing with the Image Ivory Towers and Virtual Bridges was the motto of this meeting aiming to stimulate a discussion among engineers designers and architects all of whom are traditionally involved in the use of the Image as a specialized language supporting their work their research activities and their educational tasks The book will also include the essays of invited or interviewed authors from other disciplines namely Philosophy Mathematics and Semiotics According to Régis Debray in the present Visual Age which he has significantly defined as a Video Sphere all the information tends to be processed and controlled by means of visual devices This occurs especially in the various branches of many technical studies and activities one of the most sensitive areas to the use of Visual Language in the past and even more in the present Architecture and Design at the Museum of Modern Art Thomas S. Hines,2019-01-22 A comprehensive and fascinating look at the history of the Museum of Modern Art's Architecture and Design Department under the leadership of the influential curator Arthur Drexler Arthur Drexler 1921 1987 served as the curator and director of the Architecture and Design Department at the Museum of Modern Art MOMA from 1951 until 1986 the longest curatorship in the museum's history Over four decades he conceived and oversaw trailblazing exhibitions that not only reflected but also anticipated major stylistic developments Although several books cover the roles of MoMA's founding director Alfred Barr and the department's first curator Philip Johnson this is the only in depth study of Drexler who gave the department its overall shape and direction During Drexler's tenure MoMA played a pivotal role in examining the work and confirming the reputations of twentieth century architects among them Frank Lloyd Wright Le Corbusier Richard Neutra Marcel Breuer and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Exploring unexpected subjects from the design of automobiles and industrial objects to a reconstruction of a Japanese house and garden Drexler's boundary pushing shows promoted new ideas about architecture and design as modern arts in contemporary society The department's public and educational programs projected a culture of popular accessibility offsetting MoMA's reputation as an elitist institution Drawing on rigorous archival research as well as author Thomas S Hines's firsthand experience working with Drexler Architecture and Design at the Museum of Modern Art analyzes how MoMA became a touchstone for the practice and study of midcentury architecture

Inappropriate Bodies Art, Design and Maternity Buller Rachel Epp,2019-09-01 This edited collection examines conflicting assumptions expectations and perceptions of maternity in artistic cultural and institutional contexts Over the past two decades the maternal body has gained currency in popular culture and the contemporary art world with many books and exhibitions foregrounding artists' experiences and art historical explorations of maternity that previously were marginalized or dismissed In too many instances however the maternal potential of female bodies whether realized or not still causes them to be stigmatized censored or otherwise treated as inappropriate cultural expectations of maternity create one set of prejudices against women whose bodies or experiences do align with those same expectations and another set of prejudices against those whose do not Support for mothers in the paid workforce remains woefully inadequate yet in many cultural contexts social norms continue to ask what is wrong with women who do not have children In these essays and conversations artists and writers discuss how maternal expectations shape both creative work and designed environments and highlight alternative ways of existing in relation to those expectations Glossary of Art, Architecture & Design Since 1945 John Albert Walker, 1992
