created a new literary form when he began writing stories about his adventures with wild animals in the 1890s His first stories were compiled in the book Wild Animals I Have Known that became popular throughout the United States and Canada The stories are spellbinding chronicles of wild animal courage intelligence and endurance as they valiantly attempt to escape the traps poisons guns and lariats of their human pursuers Seton was renowned for his scientific studies of American wildlife His stories about wild animals however were a mix of fact and fiction that heightened the drama of each animals life or death struggle During the 1890s Seton traveled to the American West and from his experiences wrote the thrilling tales contained in this collection The exploits of Lobo wolf The Pacing Mustang Tito coyote Monarch grizzly Coaly Bay horse Johnny Bear and Badlands Billy wolf are presented in their entirety along with many of Setons drawings Stephen Zimmer was Director of the Seton Memorial Library at Philmont Scout Ranch at Cimarron New Mexico for twenty years For this collection he contributed a biographical introduction of Ernest Thompson Seton and the historical background for each story

Biographical Dictionary of American and Canadian Naturalists and Environmentalists George A. Cevalasco, Lorne Hammond, Richard Harmond, Keir B. Sterling, 1997-12-09 Casting a wide net this volume provides personal and professional information on some 445 American and Canadian naturalists and environmentalists who lived from the late 15th century to the late 20th century It includes explorers who published works on the natural history of North America conservationists ecologists environmentalists wildlife management specialists park planners national park administrators zoologists botanists natural historians geographers geologists academics museum scientists and administrators military personnel travellers government officials political figures and writers and artists concerned with the environment Some of the subjects are well known The accomplishments of others are little known Each entry contains a succinct but careful evaluation of the subject s career and contributions Entries also include up to date bibliographies and information concerning manuscript sources

Women and Nature Glenda Riley, 1999-01-01 Long before Rachel Carson s fight against pesticides placed female environmental activists in the national spotlight women were involved in American environmentalism In Women and Nature Saving the Wild West Glenda Riley calls for a reappraisal of the roots of the American conservation movement This thoroughly researched study of women conservationists provides a needed corrective to the male dominated historiography of environmental studies The early conservation movement gained much from women s widespread involvement Florence Merriam Bailey classified the birds of New Mexico and encouraged appreciation of nature and concern for environmental problems Ornithologist Margaret Morse Nice published widely on Oklahoma birds In 1902 Mary Knight Britton established the Wild Flower Preservation Society of America Women also stimulated economic endeavors related to environmental concerns including nature writing and photography health spas and resorts and outdoor clothing and equipment From botanists birders and nature writers to club women and travelers untold numbers of women have contributed to the groundswell of support for environmentalism
