

"Nature Lessons is a striking debut.
Lynette Brasfield masterfully explores the weight of loss between a mother and daughter and the complex legacy it leaves behind. Set against the vibrant backdrop of South Africa, it is both fascinating and absorbing."

informs and inspires artistic creations while literary designs and rhetoric also shape our ideas and perceptions of the natural environment. It is argued that in order to address design and rhetoric in environmental texts we need a close analysis of those world shaping functions of literary narratives that unite ecocritical and narratological interests. The author presents readings of contemporary novels and their varying ways of seeing nature through narrative devices and fictional minds. The novels discussed in the book are Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall, Toni Morrison's A Mercy, Ian McGuire's The North Water, Barbara Kingsolver's The Lacuna, Paul Harding's Tinkers and Enon J. M. Coetzee's Elizabeth Costello. Ian McEwan's Solar and Jenny Offill's Weather.

A Companion to Indian Fiction in English Pier Paolo Piciuccio, 2004. After The Pioneer Works by scholars such as Naik Narasimhaiah and Mukherjee and The Thirty Years Of Silence Which Followed Their Ground Breaking Achievements, the companion appears on the scene striving to reinvigorate the tradition of panoramic studies of Indian literature in English. In the intervening period, Indian fiction in English has become of paramount importance in the wide context of postcolonial studies. An emergent crop of novelists belonging to the so-called new generation has colourfully paved the way towards new artistic horizons, reinterpreting western derived literary models with inventive approaches complementary to their role. There is the articulate presence of a host of Indian scholars who in recent years have significantly influenced the course of this analysis and have vitally contributed to enlarging its scope well beyond the original boundaries of studies in literary criticism. The companion therefore addresses the exigencies of critics, teachers and students alike. All those who need to find quick points of reference in this wide field of studies by relying on a team of authoritative collaborators and specialists from all over the world. Great care was taken not only in selecting collaborators on the basis of their specialisation but also taking into account their cultural background in relation to the author. They were to discuss the book in fact has been organised to have what have been deemed to be the most representative authors in Indian fiction discussed in an essay long chapter each structured to highlight crucial points such as biographical details, novels and critical reception. Each chapter includes a final bibliography complete with primary and secondary sources enabling the scholar to have immediate orientation on various specific topics. Finally, the book has an innovative section with synopses of novels planned to allow our readers to immediately place the authors analysed within the panorama of Indian fiction in English. The over 400 synopses included principally introduce works written by the novelists discussed at length in the previous chapters but along with them it is also possible to find summaries of works by authors who although contributing in a significant way to the development of forms and techniques do not feature in the first part.

Portuguese Literature and the Environment Victor K. Mendes, Patrícia Vieira, 2019-06-03. Portuguese literature and the environment explores the relationship between Portuguese literature and the environment from medieval times to the present. From the centrality of nature in medieval poetry through the bucolic verse of the Renaissance all the way to the Romantic and post Romantic nostalgia for a pristine natural or rural landscape under threat in the wake of industrialization Portuguese literature has frequently reflected on the connection between humans and the natural world More recently the postcolonial turn in contemporary literature has highlighted the contrast between the environment of the former colonies and that of Portugal Contributors to the collection examine how Portuguese writers engage with the environment and have incorporated nature in their texts not only to prompt social political or philosophical reflections on human society but also as a way to learn from non humans The book is organized into three sections The first explores the relationship between Portuguese philosophy historiography culture and environmental issues The second section discusses the link between literary texts and the environment from the Renaissance to 1900 The final section analyzes the connection between literary movements or specific authors and environmental change from 1900 to today Scholars of literature Latin American studies literature and environmental studies will find this volume especially useful
