Nature Of A Sistuh:

Nature of a Sistuh Trevy Ann McDonald, T. Ford-Ahmed, 1999 The twentieth century has been an era of perpetual growth and development for Black women in American society Black women today are continuing to move from being predefined objects to becoming self defining subjects Books by cultural critics bell hooks Patricia Hill Collins and Paula Giddings are the order of discussion in academic settings across the U S At the same time Black women s fiction by authors including Alice Walker Toni Morrison and Terry McMillan are the focus of paper presentations articles and feature films which explore self definition Compiling some of the best scholarship and qualitative methodologies since Black Women in America in 1990 Nature of a Sistuh reconsiders some of the constructions made of Black women by others in higher education corporate offices organized religions television and other mass media Written by and about women of color this book examines and chronicles their struggle to become subjects who chart their own successes and futures This collection of seventeen essays is edited by McDonald and Ford Ahmed and is arranged into four parts providing stirring personal testimony theoretical frameworks and an array of methods for resisting the oppression of limited and one dimensional representations of themselves by others Introducing Womanist Theology Stephanie Y. Mitchem ,2014-07-30

Intersectional Approach Guidroz Kathleen, Berger Michele Tracy, 2010-05-07 Inter sectionality or the consideration of race class and gender is one of the prominent contemporary theoretical contributions made by scholars in the field of women s studies that now broadly extends across the humanities social sciences and natural sciences Taking stock of this transformative paradigm The Intersectional Approach guide Black Womanist Leadership Toni C. King, S. Alease Ferguson, 2011-06-01 Featuring the stories of fourteen Black women scholars Black Womanist Leadership Tracing the Motherline offers a culturally based model of Black women s leadership practices and examines the mother daughter transmission of these skills The personal narratives fit into a storytelling tradition that reveals the ways Black mothers and women of the community the Motherline teach girls the ways women lead The essays present a range of different practical and theoretical issues of leadership and development including mother nurture emulation of and divergence from core values internalized oppression self determination representation of the physical self guardianship governance of the body cooperative economics activism contentiousness with or differentiation from the mother and negotiation of leadership across public and private spheres Together they make a compelling argument for the necessity of continuing to teach the cultural and gender specific resistance to oppression that has been passed along the Motherline and to adapt this Motherline tradition to the lives and needs of women and girls in the 21st century Black Scholars in White Space Anthony B. Bradley, 2015-01-19 Never before in American history have we seen the number of African Americans teaching at Christian Colleges as we see today Black Scholars in White Space highlights the recent research and scholarly contributions to various academic disciplines by some of America s history making African American scholars working in Christian Higher Education

Many are the first African Americans or only African Americans teaching at their respective institutions Moreover never before have this many African American female scholars in Christian Higher Education had their research presented in a single cross disciplinary volume The scholars in this book spanning the humanities and social sciences examine the issues in public policy church state relations health care women s issues in higher education theological anthropology affirmative action and black history that need to be addressed in America as we move forward in the 21st century For these reasons and more Black Scholars in White Space offers timely and historic contributions to the discourse about making the black community a place where men and women thrive and make contributions to the common good Leading Lessons Jeanne Porter,2004-12-01 A sequel to Porter s first book Leading Ladies which explored how the Bible supports women in leadership this volume delves deeper providing insights into growing into leadership leading through adversity challenging the status quo and seeing leadership potential in unexpected people Nine scripturally based studies examine lessons of leadership from specific women of the Bible From Eve we discover how to unlock our leadership potential from Esther we learn about leadership formation from within Each chapter includes a summary page of empowerment principles as well as a series of questions for personal reflection or groups
