Natures Grace 1993:

The Goddess in the Garden Carolyn Zonailo, 2002 We're back in the garden but something's changed This is the Garden of the Great Mother Goddess where the drama of relationships between women as daughters mothers sisters and between women and men as lovers and friends casts a surprising light on the concept of Paradise Imprints and Casualties League of Canadian Poets, 2000

The Annihilation of Hell Nicholas Ansell, 2014-07-08 This work analyses and evaluates Jurgen Moltmann's model of universal salvation and its relation to his understanding of the redemption or eschatological fulfilment of time For Jurgen Moltmann Hell is the nemesis of Hope The Annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell's annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann's distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ's descent into Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfilment of history are inseparable Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann's thinking especially his zimzum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature-grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honour human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation As well as providing an in-depth exposition of Moltmann's ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalise our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorising of Scripture and the spirituality of existence If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the centre of theology but at the heart of life itself Aquinas Among the Protestants Manfred Svensson, David VanDrunen, 2017-09-25

AQUINAS AMONG THE PROTESTANTS This major new book provides an introduction to Thomas Aquinas's influence on Protestantism The editors both noted commentators on Aquinas bring together a group of influential scholars to demonstrate the ways that Anglican Lutheran and Reformed thinkers have analyzed and used Thomas through the centuries Later chapters also explore how today's Protestants might appropriate the work of Aquinas to address a number of contemporary theological and philosophical issues The authors set the record straight and disavow the widespread impression that Aquinas is an irrelevant figure for the history of Protestant thought This assumption has dominated not only Protestant historiography but also Roman Catholic accounts of the Reformation and Protestant intellectual life The book opens the possibility for contemporary reception engagement and critique and even intra-Protestant relations and includes information on the fruitful appropriation of Aquinas in Anglican Lutheran and Reformed theologians over the centuries Important essays from leading scholars on the teachings of Aquinas New perspectives on Thomas Aquinas's position as a towering figure in the history of Christian thought Aquinas Among the Protestants is a ground-breaking and interdenominational work for students and scholars of Thomas Aquinas and theology more generally The Moon with Mars in Her Arms Carolyn Zonailo, 2006 A compelling new volume from one of Canada's most esteemed voices in poetry the moon with mars in her arms is an important work delving deep into the heart of life death and rebirth Starting from Jungian archetypes Zonailo combines the personal and the universal to evoke eternal truths of the human condition in language both sensual and spare

Revelations of Humanity Richard Schenk (o.p.), Richard Schenk, OP, 2022-03-11 Revelations of Humanity brings together essays into the history and actuality of how our searches for God and for our own humanity are interwoven They argue that the revelation of God is possible only when accompanied by a revelation of what it means to be a human being Revelation implies that the truth is not fully evident in either case This quest is aided in many of the essays by a recollection of the thought of Thomas Aquinas As opposed to simple memory recollection implies that memory has been lost or become clouded here by the misrepresentation of Thomas view of humanity s relation to God as harmonistic at best semi Pelagian often even naturalistic This difficult recovery is made possible by historical research that alone can escape the easy systematic alienation that supporters and critics of Thomas have often brought to their interpretation of his works Thomas s sense of a real but finite capacity of human beings for God his grace and revelation anticipates in more ways than is commonly known much of contemporary suspicion about human capacities but in ways that are open to God That programmatic insight into the historical Thomas keenly aware of human entanglements limits and hopes offers on many contemporary issues a ressourcement of systematic thought Revelations of Humanity revolves around three clusters of issues The first asks about the reality and limits of the human capacity for truth in metaphysical moral and political matters and in relation to the disputed issues of analogous reason and faith The second cluster is structured around the four involvements that the Second Vatican Council identified as the human face of genuine Christian existence participation in the legitimate joys hopes sorrows and fears of the contemporary world These are refracted in the broken light of the human proprium of risibility the abiding uncertainty addressed by hope the disputed question of a suffering God and the recollection of Christ s anxiety in the face of death The final cluster brings together anthropological dimensions of current ecumenical and interreligious disputes the need to complement affirmation with admonition in ecumenical conversation exemplified by the ambivalence towards sacrifice in a genuinely Catholic theology and the need to avoid the excesses of univocity equivocality or an all too facile analogy in the determination of interreligious relationalities

From Nature to Grace James Britton Cranfill, 1924

They Who Endure to the End Everett Berry, 2020-07-30 Is it possible for a true believer in Christ to apostatize If so how Also how can professing believers know if they are truly born again What assurance can they have that they will never renounce their faith These questions have been asked for centuries as Christians have wrestled with what Scripture says about these matters The search for answers has instilled strong disagreements among Christian traditions In this book we navigate the terrain of this debate by examining the pertinent biblical data surveying the history of major views that have been advocated by various denominations and offering a synthesis of all this material in the hopes that readers can see how Scripture assures believers of their security in Christ

The Ground of Union A. N. Williams, 1999-06-17 This book attempts to resolve one of the oldest and bitterest controversies between the Eastern and Western Christian churches namely the dispute about the doctrine of deification A N Williams examines two key thinkers each of whom is championed as the authentic spokesman of his own tradition and reviled by the other Taking Aquinas as representative of the West and Gregory Palamas for the East she presents fresh readings of their work that both reinterpret each thinker and show an area of commonality between them much greater than has previously been acknowledged Concepts of Nature R. J.

Snell, Steven F. McGuire, 2016-10-07 If natural law arguments struggle to gain traction in contemporary moral and political discourse could it be because we moderns do not share the understanding of nature on which that language was developed Building on the work of important thinkers of the last half century including Leo Strauss Eric Voegelin John Finnis and Bernard Lonergan the essays in Concepts of Nature compare and contrast classical medieval and modern conceptions of nature in order to better understand how and why the concept of nature no longer seems to provide a limit or standard for human action These essays also evaluate whether a rearticulation of pre modern ideas or perhaps a reconciliation or reconstitution on modern terms is desirable and or possible Edited by R J Snell and Steven F McGuire this book will be of interest to intellectual historians political theorists theologians and philosophers The Faith of the Early Fathers:

Volume 2 ,2024-09-13 Volume 2 A source book of theological and historical passages from the Christian writings of the Post Nicene and Constantinopolitan eras through St Jerome Volume 2 concludes with Julian of Eclanum d 454 Volume 1 the Pre Nicene and Nicene eras Volume 2 the Post Nicene era through St Jerome Volume 3 St Augustine to the end of the patristic period The passages selected are keyed to the numerical order established in M J Rou t de Journal s Enchiridion Patristicum In no sense however are these volumes a translation of that standard work The author has made his own investigation of theological textbooks in common use and has selected the patristic passages most frequently cited including much that is in Rou t and much that is not All passages have been freshly and accurately translated from the best critical editions Preceding each selection is a brief introduction treating the authorship date and place of composition and the purpose of the work from which the selection is taken The author s scholarship and sprightly sense of humor are evident in these prefatory remarks Of immense value to the reader is the Doctrinal Index provided for each volume Here one can find the texts pertinent to particular doctrinal points a method especially useful to homilists In addition each volume is enhanced by comprehensive Scriptural and General Indices Reader in Trinitarian Theology Henco van der Westhuizen, 2022-12-15 Speaking God today signifies assuming the task constitutive of the discipline of systematic theology A relational God who lives in ex static self giving creates Christian communities of hospitality and generosity and offers a healing vision of truth goodness and beauty Speaking the Triune God extends the promise of the benediction May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Spirit be with you all Rian Venter In this first volume on doing Theology in South Africa Henco van der Westhuizen assembled an array of articles by South African theologians on Trinitarian Theology from 1976 to today     Theology and Science on the Evolution of Religion Tom Uytterhoeven, 2024-09-14 This book studies the much debated implications of sociobiology for religion It explores the answers to questions such as Is religion merely the result of natural selection Do religious ideas literally make up people s minds determining how they think and act Critically engaging philosopher Daniel Dennett s view on cultural evolution the book argues that the relation between religious concepts and religious believers is one of continuous creative dialogue This dialogical relation allows meaning to emerge and leaves room for free will thus contradicting Dennett s position The book provides a concise introduction to the questions at play where religion and science meet Drawing on sources from science philosophy and theology it offers an example of how a constructive interaction of different disciplines can lead to new perspectives on the complex phenomenon of religion     The Unchanging Truth of God? Crucial Philosophical Issues for Theology Thomas G. Guarino, 2022-02-18 It has long been a cornerstone of Catholic belief that Christians can be intelligent and creative thinkers inquisitive seekers after truth as well as men and women of ardent faith Catholics are entirely committed then to the claim that human rationality and religious faith are complementary realities since they are equally gifts of God But understanding precisely how faith and reason cohere has not always been a smooth path At times theology has allowed philosophy to become the leading and baleful partner in the faith reason relationship thereby lapsing into rationalism or relativism At other times theology has been tempted by fideism with philosophy now regarded as little more than a pernicious intruder corrupting Christian faith life and thought The essays in this volume display how Catholicism understands the proper confluence between philosophy and theology between human rationality and Christian faith between the natural order and supernatural grace To illustrate these points the book draws on a long line of Christian thinkers Origen Augustine Anselm Aquinas and in our own day Fides et Ratio of John Paul II and the Regensburg Address of Benedict XVI How is theology always a Jewgreek enterprise to borrow a term from Jacques Derrida always a combination of the biblical Hebraic and philosophical Hellenic traditions Why is one particular element of philosophy metaphysics essential for the intelligibility and clarity of Catholic theology Why is this so much the case that John Paul II could state emphatically a philosophy which shuns metaphysics would be radically unsuited to the task of mediation in the understanding of Revelation But theology cannot simply be about dialogue with philosophers of yesteryear Theology must constantly incorporate fresh thinking and remain in lively conversation with an extensive variety of contemporary perspectives This book displays how reciprocity and absorption has been characteristic of theology s past and must represent its future as well     T&T Clark Companion to Henri de Lubac Jordan Hillebert, 2017-06-29 The T T Clark Companion to Henri de Lubac introduces the life and writings of one of the most influential theologians of the 20th century A highly controversial figure throughout the 1940s and 50s Henri de Lubac 1896 1991 played a prominent role during the Second Vatican Council and was appointed cardinal by Pope John Paul II in 1983 His work which covers an impressive range of theological philosophical and historical inquiries has left an indelible mark on modern Christian thought This volume including contributions from leading Catholic Protestant and Anglican scholars of de Lubac's work introduces readers to the key features of his theology By placing de Lubac's writings in both their immediate context and in conversation with contemporary theological debates these essays shed light on the theological ingenuity and continuing relevance of this important thinker

Sacramental Identity T. Ryan Dillon, 2024-04-01 Who am I A theology of personal identity and an answer to that question should be integral to any theological anthropology For some the answer is found in what many have called expressive individualism an inward turn toward the self and who and what I feel is most authentic to that self Christians respond that we are no longer that person we are in Christ But do either of these answers truly respond to the realities of both storied and embodied persons living out a life over time and change or the demand for an answer of stability throughout that endless change Sacramental Identity seeks to answer these questions by grounding personal identity in Scripture history and a rich theology of the sacraments of the church In a time where many are skeptical of the church's care for the embodied and storied realities of human life the sacraments invite us into the story of Christ and the church to discover who we are

The Vocation of the Child Patrick M. Brennan, 2008-10-07 The Vocation of the Child seeks to understand the child as a person in his or her own right as a member of family and of community and as a son or daughter of a God who came to earth as a child Distinguished jurist Patrick McKinley Brennan has gathered fifteen other respected scholars from various fields to consider seriously the vocation of the child Jacket

Giving One's Word Michael Joseph Higgins, 2025 St Thomas Aquinas is rarely invoked as a patron of such a social approach to the Trinity Aquinas's Trinitarian theology after all revolves around the immanent processions of a Word and Love within the unity of the divine essence Many have assumed that this psychological analogy is removed from or even incompatible with interpersonal knowledge love and self giving Some have concluded that Aquinas is therefore unable to accommodate a social Trinity Others have argued that he is open to a social Trinity but that his psychological categories need to be complemented by a more overtly social framework This study however shows that these psychological categories themselves are shot through with interpersonal knowledge love and self giving Provided by publisher

Deep Spirit & Great Heart Louis Silverstein, 2002-04-02 A first person account of thoughtful healing and provocative excursions into the material and spiritual realms of existence while under the influence of cannabis sativa Captured in words by Ganja and given to Louis to be the journal keeper we read of journeys into the positive use as contrasted to abuse of a gift bestowed upon humans by the gods Be it described as a plant teacher or a weed marijuana has been used across cultures throughout the ages to reveal multiple realms of consciousness and to introduce new ways of being to those who have come to respect its powers and accord marijuana the reverence it deserves in order to unleash its full potential to make of life a rapturous experience Journal entries that tell of a joyous daily existence awareness of eternal truths sexual ecstasy and spiritual enlightenment are to be found within the pages of this book as we read of Ganja's travels into the land of Deep Spirit and Great Heart where we come to realize that heaven is not a place but a state of consciousness      CREATION AND COSMOLOGY Rudolf B. Brun, 2009 A collection of essays that except one were published either in Zygon or in Communio
