Mark, David Stea, Carmelita Topaha, 2019 The Navajo language Din bizaad has a vocabulary of landscape terms that allows speakers to communicate about their environment This book documents that vocabulary and provides photographic illustration of many of the terms The meanings of these terms seldom match the English language terms one to one Terms include explicit reference to earth materials such as water or rock stone Rather than alphabetically this book is organized by material and form categories This dictionary is a valuable resource for language preservation in schools and elsewhere and for linguists anthropologists geographers and earth scientists interested in indigenous conceptualization of landscape and environment The Navajo Country Herbert E. Gregory,1915 The Navajo Country Herbert Ernest Gregory,2014-01-14 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book The Navajo Country. A Geographic and Hydrographic Reconnaissance of Parts of Arizona, New Mexico, and Utah Herbert Ernest GREGORY,1916 The Navajo Donna Janell Bowman,2017-12-11 The Long Walk to forced imprisonment in eastern New Mexico still haunts the Navajo people But after years of suffering they were allowed to return to their traditional lands where they prospered Today the Navajo celebrate their strengths and proudly maintain their cultural traditions in modern America Navajo Country Donald L. Baars,1995 This book sketches the long geological history and explores the many physical landscapes of this rocky colorful region bound by the Four Sacred Mountains and settled by the Navajo Indians 500 years ago A Diné History of Navajoland Klara Kelley,Harris Francis,2019-10-22 For the first time a sweeping history of the Din that is foregrounded in oral tradition Authors Klara Kelley and Harris Francis share Din history from pre Columbian time to the present using ethnographic interviews in which Navajo people reveal their oral histories on key events such as Athabaskan migrations trading and trails Din clans the Long Walk of 1864 and the struggle to keep their culture alive under colonizers who brought the railroad coal mining trading posts and finally climate change The early chapters based on ceremonial origin stories tell about Din forebears Next come the histories of Din clans from late pre Columbian to early post Columbian times and the coming together of the Din as a sovereign people Later chapters are based on histories of families individuals and communities and tell how the Din have struggled to keep their bond with the land under settler encroachment relocation loss of land based self sufficiency through the trading post system energy resource extraction and climate change Archaeological and documentary information supplements the oral histories providing a comprehensive investigation of Navajo history and offering new insights into their twentieth century relationships with Hispanic and Anglo settlers For Din readers the book offers empowering histories and stories of Din cultural sovereignty In short the authors say it may help you to know how you came to be where and who you are Diné Bikéyah Richard F.
