Navigating New Terrain:

Navigating New Terrain Claire E. Wolfteich, 2002 A call to action for religious groups to understand the complex and changing roles of women today within the context of their spiritual lives Calling in Today's World Cahalan & Schuurman, 2016 The concept of vocation or calling is a distinctively Christian concern grounded in the long held belief that we find our meaning purpose and fulfillment in God But what about religions other than Christianity What does it mean for someone from another faith tradition to understand calling or vocation In this book contributors with expertise in Catholic and Protestant Christianity Judaism Islam Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism and secular humanism explore the idea of calling from these eight faith perspectives from back of book Lawless Kimberley Motley, 2019-09-05 In the summer of 2008 Kimberley Motley quit her job as a public defender in Milwaukee to join a program that helped train lawyers in war torn Afghanistan She was thirty two at the time a mother of three who had never travelled outside the United States What she brought to Afghanistan was a toughness and resilience which came from growing up in one of the most dangerous cities in the US a fundamental belief in everyone's right to justice and an unconventional legal mind that has made her a legend in an archaic misogynistic and deeply conservative environment Through sheer force of personality ingenuity and perseverance Kimberley became the first foreign lawyer to practise in Afghanistan and her work swiftly morphed into a mission to bring justice to the defenceless and voiceless She has established herself as an expert on its fledgling criminal justice system able to pivot between the country's complex legislation and its religious laws in defence of her clients Her radical approach has seen her successfully represent both Afghans and Westerners overturning sentences for men and women who've been subject to often appalling miscarriages of justice Inspiring and fascinating in equal measure Lawless tells the story of a remarkable woman operating in one of the most dangerous countries in the world Holy Spirit, Holy Living Antipas L. Harris, 2013-07-26 The language of holiness seems outdated It is a word that comes to us thwarted by a negative history associated with undesirable restrictions and oppressive legalisms What do you do with a term that has been negatively socialized even among churches when the God of the Bible clearly states that He wants His people to be holy Holy Spirit Holy Living aims to dust off the discarded idiom and rediscover the depth and splendor of holiness What are some practical implications for theological and spiritual practice Two broad categories express the particularity of the Church in the world As such the Church must maintain peculiarity to the world First holiness properly understood speaks to being and acting in a way that reflects both a regenerated life in Christ and the ongoing renewal in Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit Secondly holiness as a lifestyle must include at least three principles rest being and doing These three standards undergird a life of conviction of faith and practice worship for God and service to others A holy life follows Christ and is Spirit filled It is unbent by society which is numb to what God wants Leading with Cultural Intelligence David Livermore, 2015-04-08 Succeeding in today's global market requires a new set of skills than it did when the pioneers of the twentieth century were making their mark but don't let that intimidate you from expanding your business beyond our borders. In order to negotiate with vendors from other countries, it is not necessary to immerse yourself in the culture for an extended period of time or take a month-long trip to learn what people are like. As cross-cultural interactions become increasingly virtual, cultural intelligence or CQ becomes the key to taking your business global and doing so effectively. Having done training and consulting for leaders in more than 100 countries, David Livermore, president and partner at the Cultural Intelligence Center, has detailed a four-step model for improving your CQ and maximizing your impact in managing across cultures. In Leading with Cultural Intelligence, Livermore will help you learn about Drive, boost your motivation for and confidence in interacting with other cultures, Knowledge, understand the relevance of differences in religion, values, norms, and languages, Strategy, plan ahead for unfamiliar cultural settings but remain flexible if actual experience differs from expectations, Action, successfully adapt your behavior to each situation. Featuring fresh research, case studies, and statistics on the ROI of improving your CQ, this new edition of Leading with Cultural Intelligence will help you thrive in any business environment, whether it's across the world or in your own backyard.

Green Space as a Foundation for Student Wellbeing in Higher Education Vanita Naidoo, 2025-06-13. This book presents a unique comparative case study that details the narrative around campus design at the first institutions of public higher education in the United States. With a focus on Southern design at the turn of the 18th century, it explores the use and perception of campus green space and its influence on student wellbeing and belonging using both structural and lived perspectives. With attention to the post-COVID 19 context, the comparative analysis of two campuses, The University of North Carolina UNC at Chapel Hill and the University of Georgia, offers insight into how historical context, location, and design all influence the use of space. The case studies and analysis also serve as examples of how institutions and university systems hoping to engage with design practices can promote positive learning environments that are both inclusive and supportive. Each chapter addresses an experiential aspect of space, linking back to the dialogue on diversity, inclusion, and identity. In addition to considerations around diversity, the book also offers a rich narrative that uncovers the links between American Education and the New Southern Republic, shining a light on the role of place, historical origin, and socio-political circumstances in shaping campus design. A superb resource for scholars and postgraduates studying higher education, environmental psychology, and urban planning, it chronicles the evolution of campus design at public institutions of higher education from a unique historical perspective.

explores Christian understandings of good work in relationship to ethics community practice and ecclesial witness In The Church and Work Sweden provides a substantial contribution to the theological conversation about work by proposing an ecclesiological grounding for good work He argues that many of the prominent theological proposals for good work are too abstract from context and demonstrates how the church can be understood as generative for both the theology and practice of good work This needed ecclesiological development takes seriously the role of context in the ongoing discernment of good work and specifically explores how ecclesial life and practice shape and inform good work Christian understandings of good work are inconceivable without the church Accordingly the church is not simply the recipient and a dispenser of a theology of work but the locus of its development Louisiana Women Shannon Frystak, Mary Farmer-Kaiser, 2016-03-15 Louisiana
