written in an accessible format and is designed for occupational therapy and occupational science academics researchers and graduate students

Ethics and Spiritual Care Karen Lebacqz, Joseph Driskill, 2010-10-01 Ethics and Spiritual Care responds to three phenomena of increasing importance Although spiritual care is at the heart of ordained ministry there is no text in professional ethics for clergy that focuses specifically on spiritual care What ethical guidelines are needed to ensure that spiritual care in ministry is appropriate Many people in our world do not consider themselves religious but use the term spiritual The burgeoning interest in spirituality is an invitation to people with little training to set themselves up as spiritual directors Guidelines are needed not simply for the ethical practice of parish ministry but for specific practices of spiritual direction Allegations of spiritual abuse have been made both in practice and in the literature the term is being used with some frequency The development of this term and its implications requires some scrutiny and response as sexual abuse is not a good model for understanding spiritual abuse

Peoples Temple and Black Religion in America Rebecca Moore, Anthony B. Pinn, Mary R. Sawyer, 2004-03-11 The Peoples Temple movement ended on November 18 1978 when more than 900 men women and children died in a ritual of murder and suicide in their utopianist community of Jonestown Guyana Only a handful lived to tell their story As is well known Jim Jones the leader of Peoples Temple was white but most of his followers were black Despite that little has been written about Peoples Temple in the context of black religion in America In 10 essays writers from various disciplines address this gap in the scholarship Twenty five years after the tragedy at Jonestown they assess the impact of the black religious experience on Peoples Temple

A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further

Meet Me at the Palaver Tapiwa N Mucherera, 2010-04-29 Meet me at the Palaver shows the damaging impact of colonial Christianity on indigenous African communities The book opens with stories of destructive change brought to indigenous contexts where in the culture values religion and humanity of African peoples were often marginalized Mucherera argues for a holistic narrative pastoral counseling approach to assess and service the three basic areas of human needs in indigenous African communities body mind and spirit The book presents a hopeful strategy of recovering stories cultural traditions and values that have been subjugated in the past as effective means for dealing with contemporary life in indigenous contexts such as Zimbabwe

The Shame Factor Robert Jewett, Wayne Alloway, John G. Lacey, 2010-10-15 This volume deals with the varied forms of shame reflected in biblical theological psychological and anthropological sources Although traditional theology and church practice concentrate on providing forgiveness for shameful behavior recent scholarship has discovered the crucial relevance of social shame evoked by mental status adversity slavery abuse illness grief and defeat Anthropologists sociologists and psychologists have discovered that unresolved social shame is related to racial and social prejudice to bullying crime genocide narcissism post traumatic stress and other forms of toxic behavior Eleven leaders in this research participated in a conference on The Shame Factor sponsored by St Mark s United Methodist Church in Lincoln NE in October 2010 Their essays explore the impact and the transformation of shame in a variety of arenas comprising in this volume a unique and innovative resource for contemporary religion therapy ethics and social analysis

Counseling and Pastoral Care in African and Other Cross-Cultural Contexts Tapiwa N. Mucherera, 2017-11-03 The coming of Colonization and Christianity to Africa and other indigenous cross cultural contexts was a mixed bag of pros and cons The impact of the advent of the two has had a lasting effect being felt even today It created issues of bi culturalism and bi religiousness in personal and religious identities that counselors and the church need to address when working with people from these contexts There is the existence of deep cultural trauma including psychological and spiritual scars needing healing for those living in most of these post colonial contexts The Western counseling approaches and Christian rituals need contextualization A counselor or pastoral caregiver with an integrative consciousness is required to address the psychological and religious identity conflicts existing in African and other indigenous cross cultural contexts

A Gift Grows in the Ghetto Jay-Paul Michael Hinds, 2022-10-25 In his classic essay Of Our Spiritual Strivings W E B Du Bois asks how does it feel to be a problem This question has become a means of diagnosing the lived experience of Black men particularly in America s most neglected and feared environment the ghetto What is often overlooked however is the vital role that spirituality has in remedying the problem A Gift Grows in the Ghetto examines how not being in relationship with one s gift can lead to feelings of despair entrapment and abandonment all of which contribute to Black men feeling as though they are nothing more than a problem By utilizing the biblical story of Ishmael s miraculous survival growth and giftedness in the wilderness the book encourages Black men to embrace a life of faith that is dependent on the God who always sees nurtures and is in relationship with us and our gifts in the wilderness and the ghetto
