Battle Cries and Lullabies Linda Grant De Pauw, 2014-07-11 In this groundbreaking work which covers thousands of years and spans the globe Linda Grant De Pauw depicts women as victims and as warriors as nurses spies sex workers and wives and mothers of soldiers as warrior queens leading armies into battle and as baggage carriers marching in the rear Beginning with the earliest archaeological evidence of warfare and ending with the dozens of wars in progress today Battle Cries and Lullabies demonstrates that warfare has always and everywhere involved women Following an introductory chapter on the questions raised about women's participation in warfare the book presents a documented chronological survey linked to familiar models of military history De Pauw provides historical context for current public policy debates over the role of women in the military Whether one applauds or deplores their presence and their actions women have always been part of war To ignore this fact grossly distorts our understanding of human history

Resource Guide, Update 1986

, 1987 Hitler's Heroines Antje Ascheid, 2003-01-22 German filmgoers flocked to see musicals and melodramas during the Nazi era Although the Nazis seemed to require that every aspect of ordinary life advance the fascist project even the most popular films depicted characters and desires that deviated from the politically correct ideal Probing into the contradictory images of womanhood that surfaced in these films Antje Ascheid shows how Nazi heroines negotiated the gender conflicts that confronted contemporary women The careers of Kristina Soderbaum Lilian Harvey and Zarah Leander speak to the Nazis' need to address and contain the woman question to redirect female subjectivity and desires to self-sacrifice for the common good i.e. national socialism Hollywood's new women and glamorous dames were out the German wife and mother were in The roles and star personas assigned to these actresses though intended to entertain the public in a politically conformist way point to the difficulty of yoking popular culture to ideology

Scholars of Bohemian, Czech and Czechoslovak History Studies: J-P Jaroslav Pánek, Svatava Raková, Václava Horčáková, 2005

Women's Representations of the Occupation in Post-'68 France Claire Gorrara, 1998-08-12 This study examines French women's writing and representations of the Occupation in post 68 France The author looks at the work of The Women Resisters those women who were adult resisters during the war and The Daughters of the Occupation those who were born during or after the war period The main contention of the study is that the older generation's nascent awareness of how gender informs political activism is reworked into explicitly feminist representations of wartime France by younger women writers
