Through analyses of public artworks that have taken the form of blockades and barricades since the 1990s this book theorises artists responses to global inequities as cultural manifestations of counter revanchism in diverse urban centres This book is the first to analyse artworks as forms of counter revanchism in the context of the rise of the global city How do artists channel the global spatial conflicts of the 21st century through their behaviours actions and constructions in and on the actually existing conditions of the street What does it mean for artists the very symbol of freedom of personal expression to shut down space To refuse entry To block others passage The late critical geographer Neil Smith s influential writing on the revanchist city is used as a theoretical frame for understanding how contemporary artists engender the public sphere through their work in public urban spaces Each chapter is a case study that analyses artworks that have taken the form of walls and barricades in China USA UK Ukraine and Mexico In doing so the author draws upon diverse fields including art history geography philosophy political science theatre studies and urban studies to situate the art in a broader context of the humanities with the aim of modelling interdisciplinary research grounded in an ethics of solidarity with global social justice work Collectively these case studies reveal how artists local responses to urban revanchism since the end of the Cold War are productive reorientations of social relations and harbingers of worlds to come By using plain language and avoiding excessive academic jargon the book is accessible to a wide variety of readers It will appeal to scholars and graduate students in the fields of studio art modern and contemporary art history performance studies visual culture and visual studies especially in relation to those interested in conceptual practices performance art site specificity public art political activism and socially engaged art Cultural geographers and urban theorists interested in the social and political ramifications of temporary and everyday urbanism will also find the analysis of artworks relevant to their own studies A Concise History of the World Merry

Wiesner-Hanks, 2015-09-23 This book tells the story of humankind as producers and reproducers from the Paleolithic to the present Renowned social and cultural historian Merry Wiesner Hanks brings a new perspective to world history by examining social and cultural developments across the globe including families and kin groups social and gender hierarchies sexuality race and ethnicity labor religion consumption and material culture She examines how these structures and activities changed over time through local processes and interactions with other cultures highlighting key developments that defined particular eras such as the growth of cities or the creation of a global trading network Incorporating foragers farmers and factory workers along with shamans scribes and secretaries the book widens and lengthens human history It makes comparisons and generalizations but also notes diversities and particularities as it examines the social and cultural matters that are at the heart of big questions in world history today On Art and Artists T.G. Rosenthal, 2014-01-02 These critical essays on art and artists by T G Rosenthal chosen by the author from his considerable output over more than fifty years of writing and reviewing focus mainly on what has come to be known as Modern British art from the 20th century Rosenthal knew many of his subjects personally and some became friends Michael Ayrton Arthur Boyd Ivon Hitchens Thelma Hulbert L S Lowry Sidney Nolan Paula Rego There are also essays on Wyndham Lewis Jack B Yeats and the paintings of August Strindberg There is a profile of Walter and Eva Neurath founders of the art book publishers Thames an essay on Anti-Semitism in England and an obituary of Matthew Hodgart who at Cambridge influenced and developed Rosenthal's knowledge and passion for literature A Concise History of the Hampden Controversy Henry Christmas, 1848 Art Books, 1950-1979 R.R. Bowker Company, 1979 Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan, 2023-07-28 This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth century Chinese art from a narratological perspective Theoretically and methodologically oriented this is a self-reflective meta-art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art Thus this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework the first-hand fabula the secondary narration and the tertiary narrativization With this tertiary narrativization the reader-author presents three types of narrative the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book the middle-range narrative of the chapter theses and case analyses supporting these theses The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history critical theory Chinese studies and cultural studies PHOTOGRAPHY: A CONCISE HISTORY Donald Kahn, 2014-07-10 A dedicated amateur photographer all my adult life I have often thought of writing a concise history of the subject It isn't that there are no other histories of the subject But most of these are reference works or just specialized studies dedicated to one or a few photographers I know of no work that pretends to cover the entire subject yet could be read over a weekend One might think of including enough references so that a potential reader could track down all the further details There is no longer a need for a Monster Book where every thought is illustrated by a picture The Trans/National Study of Culture Doris Bachmann-Medick, 2014-02-27 This volume introduces key concepts for a trans-national expansion in the study of culture Using translation as an analytical category it explores what is translatable and untranslatable between nation-specific approaches such as British American cultural studies German Kulturwissenschaften and other traditions in studying culture The range of articles included in the book covers both theoretical reflections and specific case studies that analyze the tensions and compatibilities amongst contemporary perspectives on the study of culture By testing various key concepts translation cultural transfer travelling concepts this volume reflects on an essential vocabulary and common points of reference for scholars seeking new frameworks and methodologies for the foundation of a trans national study of culture that is commensurate with the entangled nature of our world society Art, Philosophy, and Ideology Aleš

Erjavec, 2024-04-22 This volume presents a selection of aesthetic and art theoretical writings by the internationally renowned philosopher Ale Erjavec from the 1990s to the present Erjavec was an active participant in the artistic revolt in Slovenia throughout the 1980 and became one of the most notable international theorists of late and post socialist developments in art His work also extended to new emergent forms of contemporary art and visual culture in global art and culture networks The diverse contexts and artists with which he has engaged gives him a unique critical perspective on major debates in philosophical aesthetics and art theory
