Housework and Housewives in American Advertising Jessamyn Neuhaus, 2011-11-07 An analysis of how since the end of the 19th century advertising agencies and their housework product clients utilized a remarkably consistent depiction of housewives and housework illustrating that although Second Wave feminism successfully called into question the housewife stereotype homemaking has remained an American feminine ideal Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education James A. Banks, 2012-05-17 The diversity education literature both nationally and internationally is broad and diffuse Consequently there needs to be a systematic and logical way to organize and present the state of research for students and professionals American citizens need to understand the dynamics of their increasingly diverse communities and institutions and the global world in which we live work and lead With continually evolving information on diversity policies practices and programs it is important to have one place where students scholars teachers and policymakers can examine and explore research policy and practice issues and find answers to important questions about how diversity in U S education enriched with theories research and practices in other nations are explained and communicated and how they affect institutional change at both the K 12 and postsecondary levels With about 700 signed entries with cross references and recommended readings the Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education 4 volumes in both print and electronic formats will present research and statistics case studies and best practices policies and programs at pre and postsecondary levels Diversity is a worldwide phenomenon and while most of the entries in the Encyclopedia will focus on the United States diversity issues and developments in nations around the world including the United States are intricately connected Consequently to illuminate the many aspects of diversity this volume will contain entries from different nations in the world in order to illuminate the myriad aspects of diversity From A to Z this Encyclopedia will cover the full spectrum of diversity issues including race class gender religion language exceptionality and the global dimensions of diversity as they relate to education This four volume reference work will be the definitive reference for diversity issues in education in the United States and the world

Preventing Early Learning Failure Bob Sornson, 2001-05-15 Each year thousands of young children come to school without good early learning experiences and are unprepared for school learning activities Others have experienced physical or emotional setbacks that make learning difficult and frustrating In Preventing Early Learning Failure expert educators describe practices that can help children find success in school Topics include a look at what's important in reading and math the nature of true learning disabilities and problem solving using the Instructional Support Team model with a report on an elementary school that has adopted that model and changed the lives of many at risk learners Other chapters report on basic sensory skill development at the kindergarten level and reflect on the concepts and practices that make a difference in the lives of young learners The authors examine four programs including the widely heralded Success for All program that show promise in helping children get ready for early learning success The authors also describe effective preschool programs and principles and they look at how an awareness of multiple intelligences and individual learning needs can be useful Three of the chapters include stories that illustrate some ways to prevent failure One story describes a classroom teacher who learned to think differently about student behavior another describes innovative ways a school dealt with three problem children and the third tells about the productive relationship of a young boy his mother and his teacher We cannot afford to let children in the early years of school fall into a pattern of failure that will affect them their families and their communities throughout a lifetime Preventing Early Learning Failure offers practical approaches to help develop every child s capacity for learning and ensure that no child will be left behind Note This product listing is for the Adobe Acrobat PDF version of the book

The Psychology of Leadership David M. Messick, Roderick M. Kramer, 2004-09-22 In this book some of the world s leading scholars come together to describe their thinking and research on the topic of the psychology of leadership Most of the chapters were originally presented as papers at a research conference held in 2001 at the Kellogg School of Management of Northwestern University The contributions span traditional social psychological areas as well as organizational theory examining leadership as a psychological process and as afforded by organizational constraints and opportunities The editors goal was not to focus the chapters on a single approach to the study and conceptualization of leadership but rather to display the diversity of issues that surround the topic Leadership scholars have identified a host of approaches to the study of leadership What are the personal characteristics of leaders What is the nature of the relation between leaders and followers Why do we perceive some people to be better leaders than others What are the circumstances that evoke leadership qualities in people Can leadership be taught And so on The contributions to this book examine these important questions and fall into three categories conceptions of leadership factors that influence the effectiveness of leadership and the consequences and effects of leadership on the leader All in all the chapters of this volume display part of a broad spectrum of novel and important approaches to the study of the psychology of leadership We hope that they are equally useful to those who are or would be leaders and to those who study the topic As recent events have served to remind us it is too important a topic to be ignored by psychologists

Gaining on the Gap Palma Strand, Robert G. Smith, Tim Cotman, Cheryl Robinson, Martha Swaim, Alvin Crawley, 2011-09-28 Gaining on the Gap Changing Hearts Minds and Practice serves as a guide along the journey taken by six individuals who each played a role in moving a school system along a path where race would not be a predictor for academic success Join us as we share insights to challenges and victories as well as a close look at our own personal and professional growth
