Library and Information Science Michael F. Bemis, 2014-03-03 This unique annotated bibliography is a complete up-to-date guide to sources of information on library science, covering recent books, monographs, periodicals, and websites and selected works of historical importance. In addition to compiling an invaluable list of sources, Bemis digs deeper, examining the strengths and weaknesses of key works. A boon to researchers and practitioners alike, this bibliography includes coverage of subjects as diverse and vital as the history of librarianship, its development as a profession, the ethics of information science, cataloging, reference work, and library architecture. Encompasses encyclopedias, dictionaries, directories, photographic surveys, statistical publications, and numerous electronic sources, all categorized by subject. Offers appendixes detailing leading professional organizations and publishers of library and information science literature. This comprehensive bibliography of English language resources on librarianship, the only one of its kind, will prove invaluable to scholars, students, and anyone working in the field.

Output Measures for School Library Media Programs Frances Bryant Bradburn, 1999 This work aims to provide a format for taking data traditionally collected by library media specialists and show how it can be used to talk about existing programs or to document the need for a program change.

Activism and the School Librarian Deborah D. Levitov, 2012-06-12 This book provides practical strategies and step-by-step plans for developing advocacy initiatives for school libraries. School libraries provide an essential service to the community, but without proper funding, few libraries stand a chance to maintain the resources they offer or to survive at all. School librarians can play an instrumental role in the survival of their programs. This how-to book provides school librarians with effective advocacy and activism strategies for promoting and improving their library programs. Activism and the School Librarian: Tools for Advocacy and Survival offers straightforward practical approaches for creating advocacy programs. This guidebook examines the characteristics for becoming an advocate, explores the meaning of advocacy activism as an effort that is ongoing and proactive, and provides the steps required for initiating a successful program. The contributors address the various types of advocacy and activism, including legislative advocacy at the local, state, and national levels, school and district level programs, and community-based initiatives. The book includes expert advice from successful advocates and provides helpful reproducible tools.
