School Life, 1924 The American School Board Journal, 1914 School, 1912 Fear, Hate, and Victimhood Andrew E. Stoner, 2022-03-25 When Donald Trump announced his campaign for president in 2015 journalists historians and politicians alike attempted to compare his candidacy to that of Governor George Wallace Like Trump Wallace who launched four presidential campaigns between 1964 and 1976 utilized rhetoric based in resentment nationalism and anger to sway and eventually captivate voters among America's white majority Though separated by almost half a century the campaigns of both Wallace and Trump broke new grounds for political partisanship and divisiveness In Fear Hate and Victimhood How George Wallace Wrote the Donald Trump Playbook author Andrew E Stoner conducts a deep analysis of the two candidates their campaigns and their speeches and activities as well as their coverage by the media through the lens of demagogic rhetoric Though past work on Wallace argues conventional politics overcame the candidate Stoner makes the case that

Wallace may in fact be a prelude to the more successful Trump campaign Stoner considers how ideas about in group and out group mentalities operate in politics how anti establishment views permeate much of the rhetoric in question and how expressions of victimhood often paradoxically characterize the language of a leader praised for telling it like it is He also examines the role of political spectacle in each candidate s campaigns exploring how media struggles to respond to let alone document demagogic rhetoric Ultimately the author suggests that the Trump presidency can be understood as an actualized version of the Wallace presidency that never was Though vast differences exist the demagogic positioning of both men provides a framework to dissect these times and perhaps a valuable warning about what is possible in our highly digitized information society The Case of Social Emotional Learning: Evidence-Based Practices Pedro Rosário ,Carmel
