Schooling in Modern European Society W. D. Halls, Torsten Husén, Albert Tuijnman, 1992 Schooling in Modern European Society Academia Europaea, 1992 Everyone accepts that education should be for all but how is education best provided This book deals with problem areas in European education for example school quality examinations the teaching of foreign languages and science education It also spells out the role of basic education in forming a European identity and consciousness Schooling in Western Europe Mary Jo Maynes, 1985-01-01 Mary Jo Maynes looks to school reform in early modern Europe to show the relevance of early ideas about schooling for understanding contemporary society She presents the competing perspectives on issues such as the identity and motivations of school reformers the broad societal changes that made educational reform seem imperative toward the end of the eighteenth century all over the West the connections between educational change and economic development the role of schools in the evolution of class relations the impact of reform on family strategies in the context of early industrialization The work concludes by assessing historical data on the social impact of school reform and addressing the social meaning of schooling in the past and in the present

Education in Europe Christoph Wulf, What Secondary Education for a Changing Europe? Pierre Luisson, Council of Europe. Council for Cultural Co-operation, 1997-01-01 On cover Education On title page A secondary education for Europe Education and the Scandinavian Welfare State in the Year 2000 Arild Tjeldvoll, 2013-10-31 This significant contribution to comparative education presents an authoritative discussion of the recent changes in Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden The implementation of a democratic educational policy in Scandinavia has been affected by the dominance of the Protestant Church mass immigration from Third World nations a growing belief in rugged individualism newfound respect for privatization and the market economy and the increasing unemployment of the technical revolution Education has been unable to adapt rapidly enough to meet the changing needs of this transformed Scandinavia In this comprehensive collection of articles contributors present their findings thoughts and concerns for the Scandinavia of both the 90s and the future

Ideas and European Education Policy, 1973-2020 Marina Cino Pagliarello, 2022-04-26 This book analyses the transformation of European Education Policy from 1973 to 2020 In doing so it offers a unique insight into the changes of European education from a predominantly national concern to a supranational policy framework driven by an economic discourse concerning productivity and employability The book shows that the idea of the Europe of Knowledge did not originate in the Lisbon Strategy of 2000 but rather was the result of a gradual development that started in the mid 1980s This begun with the establishment of a specific problem definition of education as a solution for Europe s lack of competitiveness a definition that was incrementally constructed by the European Commission and the European business community Highlighting significant and unexplored questions such as the role of European transnational business in education and the role of the problem entrepreneur in defining policy issues this book will provide a comprehensive perspective on European Education Policy that will be of interest to all students of European Politics Education Policy and Public Policy Sociology of Education Stephen J. Ball,2000 Covering the key points of dispute and areas of controversy within the field this outstanding collection includes papers from the leading writers and presents a sophisticated and versatile toolbox of ideas for theory building and research Guide to the English School in International Studies Cornelia Navari,Daniel Green,2013-11-14 Bringing together the latest scholarship from a global group of expert contributors this guide offers a comprehensive examination of the English School approach to the study of international relations Explains the major ideas of the British Committee on International Relations including the idea of and institutions connected to an international society the emerging notion of world society and order within international relations Describes the English School s methods of analyzing themes trends and dilemmas Focuses on the historical and geographical expansion of international society and particularly on the effects of colonization and imperialism Serves as an essential reference for students researchers and academics in international relations History of Education: Studies of education systems Roy Lowe,2000 Reviews of National Policies for Education: South Eastern Europe 2003 Volume 1: Albania, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Kosovo OECD,2003-12-02 Educational work is a key element for both human capital formation and the promotion of peace and democratic values It has therefore been identified as one of the priorities of the Stability Pact The OECD was asked to be Co ordinator for General Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Manuel Jorge Rodrigues Couceiro da Costa,Filipa Roseta,Joana Pestana Lages,Susana Couceiro da Costa,2019-08-08 The escalating interdependency of nations drives global geopolitics to shift ever more quickly Societies seem unable to control any change that affects their cities whether positively or negatively Challenges are global but solutions need to be implemented locally How can architectural research contribute to the future of our changing society How has it contributed in the past The theme of the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges was set to address these questions This book Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges includes reviewed papers presented in June 2016 at the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference which was held at the facilities of the Faculty of Architecture of the University of Lisbon The papers have been further divided into the following five sub themes a Changing Society In Transit Global Migration Renaturalization of the City Emerging Fields of Architectural Practice and Research on Architectural Education The EAAE ARCC International Conference held under the aegis of the EAAE and of the ARCC is a conference organized every other year in collaboration with one of the member schools universities of those associations alternatively in North America or in Europe Resources in Education ,1995 Research in Science Education in Europe Geoff Welford,Jonathan Osborne,Phil Scott,2005-08-02 A range of topical issues and concerns at the forefront of research in science education in Europe are examined in this text The contributors are science educators and researchers from throughout Europe International Higher Education Volume 2 Philip
