Gilman, 1997-01-01 This work provides a history of Jewish writing and thought in the German speaking world Written by 118 scholars in the field the book is arranged chronologically moving from the 11th century to the present Throughout it depicts the contribution that Jewish writers have made to German culture and at the same time explores what it means to the other within that mainstream culture Traumatism Realism Michael Rothberg, 2000-08-10 How to approach the Holocaust and its relationship to late twentieth century society While some stress the impossibility of comprehending this event others attempt representations in forms as different as the nonfiction novel and Hollywood blockbuster Schindler's List the documentary Shoah and the comic book Maus This problem is at the center of Michael Rothberg's book a focused account of the psychic intellectual and cultural aftermath of the Holocaust Drawing on a wide range of texts Michael Rothberg puts forth an overarching framework for understanding representations of the Holocaust Through close readings of such writers and thinkers as Theodor Adorno Maurice Blanchot Ruth Kluger Charlotte Delbo Art Spiegelman and Philip Roth and an examination of films by Steven Spielberg and Claude Lanzmann Rothberg demonstrates how the Holocaust as a traumatic event makes three fundamental demands on representation a demand for documentation a demand for reflection on the limits of representation and a demand for engagement with the public sphere and commodity culture As it establishes new grounding for Holocaust studies his book provides a new understanding of realism modernism and postmodernism as responses to the demands of history Seelenarbeit an Deutschland, 2016-08-09 The last decade has undoubtedly been the most controversial in the long literary career of Martin Walser This volume presents a review of this career going far beyond short lived arguments to present an insightful overview of much of his work It considers not only major aspects of his writing covering both his literary beginnings and the most recent works but also different previously neglected features of his persona and his writing namely his activity as a university teacher and his art criticism In addition fruitful comparisons are made with other writers such as Proust Grass and Uwe Johnson At the same time recent controversies are also considered with major attention being paid to Walser's public speeches and those works of fiction which have been seen by some as demanding the end of German self recriminations over the Nazi past This volume is unique in that much space is devoted to both sides of the argument It will provide stimulating reading to all those interested in Germany and German literature

The German Picaresque and Modernity Bernhard Malkmus,2014-03-13 The German Picaresque and Modernity reads the re emergence of the picaresque narrative in twentieth century German language writing as an expression of modernity and its social imaginaries Malkmus argues that the picaresque whose origins date back to the Spanish Renaissance and the Baroque Age re emerged as a reflection both of Germany s explosive modernizing processes between 1880 and 1930 and of the most barbarous implosion of modern civilization under National Socialism Another reason for the fertility of this literary form at that particular cultural moment is rooted in the complexities of German Jewish relations and the history of Jewish assimilation in central Europe A considerable number of authors who used the picaresque form in the twentieth century are from a Jewish background and Malkmus demonstrates how the picaresque narrative template also offers a medium for German Jewish self reflection In highlighting these connections he contributes not only to scholarship in European literature but also but also to our understanding of major social economic and political issues at stake in modernity

Günter Grass and His Critics Siegfried Mews, 2008 A comprehensive narrative overview and analysis of the criticism of the controversial German author's works When the Swedish Academy announced that Günter Grass had been awarded the 1999 Nobel Prize for Literature it singled out his first novel The Tin Drum 1959 English translation 1963 as a seminal work that had signaled the postwar rebirth of German letters auguring a new beginning after decades of linguistic and moral destruction Nearly fifty years after its publication the novel's significance has been generally acknowledged it is the uncontested favorite among Grass's works of fiction on the part of reading public and critics alike yet its canonical status tends to obscure the decidedly mixed and even hostile reactions it initially elicited Along with The Tin Drum Grass's impressive body of literary work since the 1950s has spawned a cottage industry of Grass criticism making a reliable guide through the thicket of sometimes contradictory readings a definite desideratum Siegfried Mews fills this lacuna in Grass scholarship by way of a detailed but succinct descriptive as well as analytical and evaluative overview of the scholarship from 1959 to 2005 Grass's politically motivated interventions in public discourse have kept him highly visible blurring the boundaries between politics and aesthetics Mews therefore examines not only academic criticism but also the daily and weekly press and other news media providing additional insight into the reception of Grass's works Siegfried Mews is Professor of German at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Celan-Referenzen Natalia Blum-Barth, Christine

Waldschmidt, 2016-01-18 Die Beiträge eröffnen den Blick auf ein breites Spektrum in Verfahren und Funktionen der dichterischen bzw. künstlerischen Bezugnahme auf Paul Celan. Sie thematisieren unterschiedliche Varianten der Fortsetzung, Aneignung und Reminiszenz der affirmierenden und anerkennend kritischen Wiederverwendungen von Bildern und sprachlich-stilistischen Eigenarten Celanscher Gedichte von zum Zitat geronnenen poetischen Programmen und Dichtungsidealen. Das Interesse gilt dabei der Produktivität, welche diesen Bezugnahmen für die Dynamiken der Traditionsbildung in unterschiedlichen Medien zukommt. Hierbei wird erkennbar, wie sich über die Celan-Referenzen Fragen ästhetischer Mustergültigkeit und der moralischen Verantwortung von Kunst verhandeln sowie poetologisch-legitimierende Diskurse entfalten lassen.
