Evidence and Innovation in Housing Law and Policy Lee Anne Fennell,Benjamin J. Keys,2017-08-29 No area of law and policy is more central to our well being than housing yet research on the topic is too often produced in disciplinary or methodological silos that fail to connect to policy on the ground This pathbreaking book which features leading scholars from a range of academic fields cuts across disciplines to forge new connections in the discourse In accessible prose filled with cutting edge ideas these scholars address topics ranging from the recent financial crisis to discrimination and gentrification and show how housing law and policy impacts household wealth financial markets urban landscapes and local communities Together they harness evidence and theory to capture the state of play in housing generating insights that will be relevant to academics and policymakers alike This title is also available as Open Access Pakistan's Experience with Formal Law

Osama Siddique,2013-06-20 Law reform in Pakistan attracts such disparate champions as the Chief Justice of Pakistan the USAID and the Taliban Common to their equally obsessive pursuit of speedy justice is a remarkable obliviousness to the historical institutional and sociological factors that alienate Pakistanis from their formal legal system This pioneering book highlights vital and widely neglected linkages between the narratives of colonial displacement resonant in the literature on South Asia s encounter with colonial law and the region s postcolonial official law reform discourses Against this backdrop it presents a typology of Pakistani approaches to law reform and critically evaluates the IFI funded single minded pursuit of efficiency during the last decade Employing diverse methodologies it proceeds to provide empirical support for a widening chasm between popular at times violently expressed aspirations for justice and democratically deficient reform designed in distant IFI headquarters that is entrusted to the exclusive and unaccountable Pakistani reform club Landmark Cases in Land Law Nigel Gravells,2013-06-03 Landmark Cases in Land Law is the sixth volume in the Landmark Cases series of collected essays on leading cases previous volumes in the series having covered Restitution Contract Tort Equity and Family Law The eleven cases in this volume cover the period 1834 to 2011 although interestingly no fewer than six of the cases were decided or reported in the 1980s The names of the selected cases will be familiar to property lawyers However individually the essays provide a reappraisal of the cases from a wide range of perspectives focusing on their historical social or theoretical context highlighting previously neglected aspects and even questioning their perceived importance Collectively the essays explore several common themes that pervade the law of property the numerus clausus principle the conclusiveness of registration the desirability of certainty in the law and the central question of the enforceability of interests through changes in ownership of land This volume provides a collection of essays that will be of interest to academics students and practitioners

Ethics of Transitions Jim Dratwa, 2022-08-16 This book covers all forms of ethical assessment of research and innovation at the European Commission including the implications of the concept of RRI which has emerged as a new framework to be used by the European Commission and indeed including the newer concepts of Open Innovation and Open Science which are designed to subsume and reconfigure RRI The book can be used as a how to guide to understand and navigate the ethical and societal demands in developing European research projects it also pushes the reflection and reflexivity further bringing provoking new and also some very old perspectives to bear on ardent debates in studies of expertise ethics and policy making

Making Environmental Law Nancy E. Marion, 2011-08-10 From Eisenhower to Obama this book provides a comprehensive analysis of the policies Congress and the president have proposed and passed to protect the environment over time The U S federal government first began to consider legislation to protect the environment and natural resources in 1940s Since that time Congress and the president have considered and passed numerous environmental policies laws that serve to protect the quality of the air we breathe the water we drink the natural beauty of the land and the animals that live both on land and in the water In Making Environmental Law The Politics of Protecting the Earth experienced and accomplished environmental law researcher Nancy E Marion shows what policies Congress have proposed and passed to protect the environment over time Each chapter focuses on the members of Congress s response to a different environmental concern such as ocean dumping pesticides and solid waste With green awareness now affecting every aspect of our modern world this text serves as an invaluable reference for students and researchers who need a deeper historical background on the political aspects of these issues

Feminist Perspectives on Equity and Trusts Susan Scott-Hunt, Hilary Lim, 2013-06-17 Previous collections of essays on equity and trusts law have focused on doctrinal issues only occasionally giving a policy gloss or suggestion of social context and impact Although a critical approach can be glimpsed in journal articles and student texts this collection of essays draws together both feminist and critical material It is unique in being written by feminists in dealing with equity and trusts as a whole and in being written in the critical tradition

Land, Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa William Beinart, Rosalie Kingwill, Gavin Capps, 2021-05-01 This edited collection illustrates contestations over land and political authority in South Africa s rural areas focusing on threats to popular rights and how they are being supported Who controls the land and minerals in the former Bantustans of South Africa chiefs the state or landholders Disputes are taking place around the ownership of resources decisions about their exploitation and who should benefit With respect to all of these issues the courts have become increasingly important The contributors to Land Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa capture some of these intense contestations over land law and political authority focussing on threats to the rights of ordinary people History and customary law feature strongly in most disputes and succession to chieftaincy is also frequently disputed Judges have to make decisions in a context where rival claimants to property or office assert their own versions of history and custom The South African constitution recognizes customary law and the courts are attempting to incorporate and develop this branch of jurisprudence as living customary law Lawyers community leaders and academics are called on to assist in researching cases around restitution land rights and customary law The chapters in this collection discuss legal cases and policy directions that have evolved since 1994 Some chapters analyze the increasing power of chiefs in the South African rural areas while others suggest that the courts are giving support to popular rights over land and supporting local democratic processes Contributors record significant pushback from groups that reject traditional authority These political tensions are a central theme of the collection and thus serve as vital case studies in furthering our understanding of rights and restitution in South Africa Misunderstanding, Nationalism, or Legalism Richard Wellons Winston, 2020-09-15 How does Paul assess Israel's error with reference to the law in Romans 9 30 10 13 and what solution does he present In the years since the dawn of the New Perspective on Paul interpreters continue to discuss what the Mosaic law required and how Paul described Israel's plight and solution In this work Richard Winston argues for a traditional law gospel explanation of a central passage in Paul's discussion of faith and the law Rom 9 30 10 13 defending the viewpoint that Paul critiqued Israel for seeking to obtain a right standing with God by obeying the law as the law requires and presenting faith in Christ as the solution for their problem Throughout the discussion special attention is given to how Paul rightly interprets the Old Testament to show that it is in agreement with his argument

Remaindered Life Neferti X. M. Tadiar, 2022-05-02 In Remaindered Life Neferti X M Tadiar offers a new conceptual vocabulary and framework for rethinking the dynamics of a global capitalism maintained through permanent imperial war Tracking how contemporary capitalist accumulation depends on producing life times of disposability Tadiar focuses on what she terms remaindered life practices of living that exceed the distinction between life worth living and life worth expending Through this heuristic Tadiar reinterprets the global significance and genealogy of the surplus life making practices of migrant domestic and service workers refugees fleeing wars and environmental disasters criminalized communities urban slum dwellers and dispossessed Indigenous people She also examines artists and filmmakers in the Global South who render forms of various living in the midst of disposability Retelling the story of globalization from the side of those who reach beyond dominant protocols of living Tadiar demonstrates how attending to remaindered life can open up another horizon of possibility for a radical remaking of our present global mode of life Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Court

Essays in Law and History for David Ibbetson Joe

Sampson, Stelios Tofaris, 2024-12-12 Over the last 40 years David Ibbetson has paved the way in a remarkably broad range of fields In ancient law his scholarship has spanned both the detailed doctrine of the Roman law of obligations and the cross pollination of legal influences around the ancient Mediterranean His work on English legal history has ranged from the earliest days of the common law through to the turn of the 20th century combining forensic archival research with a sensitivity to how lawyers thought about their subject In European legal history he has shown the porousness of the civil law and the extent to which it has been shaped by other areas of intellectual life from theology to rationalist philosophy The contributions to this volume in his honour mirror both the breadth and the depth of Ibbetson s scholarship The book combines chapters from leading legal historians close colleagues and over a dozen of Ibbetson s students Some chapters build upon or respond to Ibbetson s ideas others his areas of interest The contributions are introduced by Ibbetson s valedictory lecture on the importance of legal history to modern practice and scholarship and the work yet to be done
