Matheus Millers Memoir A Merchants Life In The Seventeenth Century:

Matheus Miller's Memoir Thomas Max Safley,1999-12-10 Matheus Miller s Memoir reconstructs the world and worldview of a Lutheran merchant from the city of Augsburg in the 17th century This story of his experience is based on his memoir and associated documents which explores universal institutions of early modern Europe patriarchy hierarchy honor community and confession Though Miller lived through some of the great events of his age he scarcely mentioned them though he was raised in the standard values of his age he understood and applied them idiosyncratically Matheus Miller's Memoir T. Safley,2000-01-06 This book reconstructs the worldview of a Lutheran merchant from the city of Augsburg in the seventeenth century Miller s is a singular story Though he lived through some of the great events of his age he scarcely mentioned them Though he was raised in the standard values of his age he understood and applied them idiosyncratically This is the story of one man s experience and perception based on his memoir and associated documents Yet despite its individual focus the book explores universal institutions of early modern Europe patriarchy hierarchy honor community and confession Matheus Miller's Memoir T. Safley,1999-10-11 This book reconstructs the worldview of a Lutheran merchant from the city of Augsburg in the seventeenth century Miller s is a singular story Though he lived through some of the great events of his age he scarcely mentioned them Though he was raised in the standard values of his age he understood and applied them idiosyncratically This is the story of one man s experience and perception based on his memoir and associated documents Yet despite its individual focus the book explores universal institutions of early modern Europe patriarchy hierarchy honor community and confession Absolutism and the Scientific Revolution, 1600-1720 Christopher Baker,2002-09-30 This book the sixth volume in The Great Cultural Eras of the Western World series provides information on more than 400 individuals who created and played a role in the era s intellectual and cultural activity The book s focus is on cultural figures those whose inventions and discoveries contributed to the scientific revolution those whose line of reasoning contributed to secularism groundbreaking artists like Rembrandt lesser known painters and contributors to art and music As the momentum of the Renaissance peaked in 1600 the Western World was poised to move from the Early Modern to the Modern Era The Thirty Years War ended in 1648 and religion was no longer a cause for military conflict Europe grew more secularized Organized scientific research led to groundbreaking discoveries such as the earth s magnetic field Kepler s first two laws of motion and the slide rule In the arts Baroque painting music and literature evolved A new Europe was emerging This book is a useful basic reference for students and laymen with entries specifically designed for ready reference Faith and Fraternity Laura Branch,2017-05-08 In Faith and Fraternity Laura Branch provides the first sustained comparative analysis of London s livery companies during the Reformation Focussing on the Grocers and the Drapers this book challenges the view that merchants were zealous early Protestants and that the companies to which they belonged adapted to the Reformation by secularising their ethos Rather the rhetoric of Christianity particularly appeals to brotherly love punctuated the language of corporate governance throughout the century and helped the liveries retain a spiritual culture These institutions comprised a spectrum of religious identities yet members managed to coexist relatively peacefully in this way the liveries help us to understand better how the transition from a Catholic to a Protestant society was negotiated Madness in Seventeenth-Century Autobiography K. Hodgkin, 2006-11-28 What did it mean to be mad in seventeenth century England This book uses vivid autobiographical accounts of mental disorder to explore the ways madness was identified and experienced from the inside asking how certain people came to be defined as insane and what we can learn from the accounts they wrote The Coffee Trader David Liss, 2004-02-03 Amsterdam 1659 On the world's first commodities exchange fortunes are won and lost in an instant Miguel Lienzo a sharp witted trader in the city's close knit community of Portuguese Jews knows this only too well Once among the city's most envied merchants Miguel has suddenly lost everything Now impoverished and humiliated living in his younger brother's canal flooded basement Miguel must find a way to restore his wealth and reputation Miguel enters into a partnership with a seductive Dutchwoman who offers him one last chance at success a daring plot to corner the market of an astonishing new commodity called coffee To succeed Miguel must risk everything he values and face a powerful enemy who will stop at nothing to see him ruined Miguel will learn that among Amsterdam's ruthless businessmen betrayal lurks everywhere and even friends hide secret agendas Childhood and Emotion Claudia Jarzebowski, Thomas Max Safley, 2014-01-03 How did children feel in the Middle Ages and early modern times How did adults feel about the children around them This collection addresses these fundamental but rarely asked questions about social and family relations by bringing together two emerging fields within cultural history childhood and emotion and provides avenues through which to approach their shared histories Bringing together a wide range of material and sources such as court records self narratives and educational manuals this collection sheds a new light on the subject The coverage ranges from medieval to eighteenth century Europe and North America and examines Catholic Protestant Puritan and Jewish communities Childhood emerges as a function not of gender or age but rather of social relations Emotions too appear differently in source driven studies in that they derive not from modern assumptions but from real lived experience Featuring contributions from across the globe Childhood and Emotion comes a step closer to portraying emotions as they were thought to be experienced by the historical subjects This book will establish new benchmarks not only for the history of these linked subjects but also for the whole history of social relations Literacy in Everyday Life Jeroen Blaak, 2009 Until recently historians of reading have concentrated on book ownership and trying to map out a history of who read what The reading experience has been a subject more difficult to research As has been pointed out before egodocuments can be valuable sources in this case Following this lead Literacy in Everyday Life focuses upon four early modern Dutch diaries in which readers document their daily life and in which they recount their reading In the analysis other ways in which these four readers communicated are also addressed especially speech and writing This book therefore provides an insight into the possible uses of literacy and the interaction between the printed written and spoken word in the early modern Dutch Republic

Family Firms and Merchant Capitalism in Early Modern Europe Thomas Max Safley, 2019-11-21 This fascinating study follows the fortunes of the H chstetter family merchant manufacturers and financiers of Augsburg Germany in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries and sheds light on the economic and social history of failure and resilience in early modern Europe Carefully tracing the chronology of the family s rise fall and transformation it moves from the micro to the macro level making comparisons with other mercantile families of the time to draw conclusions and suggest insights into such issues as social mobility capitalist organization business techniques market practices and economic institutions The result is a microhistory that offers macro conclusions about the lived experience of early capitalism and capitalistic practices This book will be valuable reading for advanced students and researchers of economic financial and business history legal history and early modern European history

Mapping the 'I', 2014-11-13 In Mapping the I Research on Self Narratives in Germany and Switzerland the contributors working with egodocuments autobiographies diaries family chronicles and related texts discuss various approaches to early modern concepts of the person and of personhood the place of individuality within this context genre and practices of writing The volume documents the cooperation between the Berlin and Basel self narrative research groups during its first phase 2000 2007 Next to addressing crucial methodological issues it also demonstrates the richness of egodocuments as historical sources in contributions concentrating for example on the body and illness on food as well as on the early modern economy group cultures and autobiographical considerations of one s own suicide Contributors include Andreas B hr Fabian Br ndle Lorenz Heiligensetzer Angela Heimen Gabriele Jancke Gudrun Piller Sophie Ruppel Thomas M Safley Claudia Ulbrich Kaspar von Greyerz and Patricia Zihlmann M rki

The History of Families and Households: Comparative European Dimensions Silvia Sovic, Pat Thane, Pierpaolo Viazzo, 2015-11-30 The history of family and households has been the subject of intensive research for over a generation In the 1970s Peter Laslett and others set the agenda with a strong emphasis on geographical differences between northern and southern eastern and western Europe Others have challenged this view pioneering different approaches This volume takes stock of the field focussing particularly on family history in South East Europe in comparison with the rest of Europe The authors consider what European families have in common their regional and local differences and changes over time using the rich and fascinating variety of sources and methods used by family historians today Contributors include Guido Alfani Judit Ambrus Mirjana V Bobi Siegfried Gruber Peter Guzowski Violetta Hionidou Daniela Lombardi Beatrice Moring Silvia Sovi Pat Thane Alice Velkov Marta Verginella and Pier Paolo Viazzo

The Ashgate Research Companion to the Counter-Reformation Alexandra Bamji, Geert H. Janssen, Mary Laven, 2016-03-23 In the last two decades the history of the Counter Reformation has been stretched and re shaped in numerous directions Reflecting the variety and innovation that characterize studies of early modern Catholicism today this volume incorporates topics as diverse as life cycle and community science and the senses the performing and visual arts material objects and print culture war and the state sacred landscapes and urban structures Moreover it challenges the conventional chronological parameters of the Counter Reformation and introduces the reader to the latest research on global Catholicism The Ashgate Research Companion to the Counter Reformation presents a comprehensive examination of recent scholarship on early modern Catholicism in its many guises It examines how the Tridentine reforms inspired conflict and conversion and evaluates lives and identities spirituality culture and religious change This wide ranging and original research guide is a unique resource for scholars and students of European and transnational history

Protestant Dublin, 1660-1760 R. Usher, 2012-03-13 This innovative urban history of Dublin explores the symbols and spaces of the Irish capital between the Restoration in 1660 and the advent of neoclassical public architecture in the 1770s The meanings ascribed to statues churches houses and public buildings are traced in detail using a wide range of visual and written sources

Ships on Maps Richard W. Unger, 2010-08-04 Renaissance map makers produced ever more accurate descriptions of geography which were also beautiful works of art They filled the oceans Europeans were exploring with ships and to describe the real ships which were the newest and best products of technology Above all the ships were there to show the European conquest of the seas of the world

Calvinists and Catholics During Holland's Golden Age Christine Kooi, 2012-04-30 This book examines the social political and religious relationships between Calvinists and Catholics during Holland's Golden Age Although Holland the largest province of the Dutch Republic was officially Calvinist its population was one of the most religiously heterogeneous in early modern Europe The Catholic Church was officially disestablished in the 1570s yet by the 1620s Catholicism underwent a revival flourishing in a semi clandestine private sphere The book focuses on how Reformed Protestants dealt with this revived Catholicism arguing that confessional coexistence between Calvinists and Catholics operated within a number of contiguous and overlapping social political and cultural spaces The result was a paradox a society that was at once Calvinist and pluralist Christine Kooi maps the daily interactions between people of different faiths and examines how religious boundaries were negotiated during an era of tumultuous religious change

Accounting for Affection C. Castiglione, 2015-03-13 Accounting for Affection examines the multifaceted nature of early modern motherhood by focusing on the ideas and strategies of Roman aristocratic mothers during familial conflict Illuminating new approaches to the maternal and the familial employed by such women it demonstrates how interventions gained increasing favor in early modern Rome

The Novelist and the Archivist C. Povolo, 2014-10-03 In the 19th century Alessandro Manzoni dedicated himself to writing the novel I promessi sposi that encouraged the Italian Risorgimento This book traces how the renowned novelist was inspired by an event that occurred at the beginning of the 17th century which he came to know about thanks to the secret collaboration of a Venetian archivist

City Limits Glenn Clark, Judith Owens, Greg T. Smith, 2010-02-01 In essays that capture the multiple aspects of urban life contributors examine European cities through the lenses of history literature art architecture and music Covering topics such as governance performance high culture and subculture tourism and journalism this volume provides new and invigorating ways to think about cities both past and present An innovative and interdisciplinary work City Limits crosses conventional critical boundaries to depict a vibrant and moving cityscape of historical urban experience
