Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Art, V. 3 Mary M. Gedo, 2013-05-13 This new hardcover annual offers a unique scholarly format an interdisciplinary dialogue that it is hoped will foster the development of a sound useful methodology for applying psychoanalytic insight to art and artists The series provides a medium for those who study art those who interpret it and occasionally those who create it formally to explore the meaning of an artistic work as the direct reflection of the inner world of its creator Within each volume individual topics are addressed by either an art historian or a psychoanalyst with a response frequently tendered by an expert from the other field Reviews of important books of cross disciplinary interest are treated in a similar manner and include rebuttals by the authors themselves It is precisely this exchange of ideas among scholars with difference perspectives on the meaning of a work of art that sets PPA apart from the standard art history publication Its depth of scholarship coupled with its innovative format make it a fascinating addition to the burgeoning field of psychoanalytic studies of art history The Symbolist Roots of Modern Art Michelle Facos, 2017-07-05 With the words A new manifestation of art was expected necessary inevitable Jean Mor announced the advent of the Symbolist movement in 1886 When Symbolist artists began experimenting in order to invent new visual languages appropriate for representing modern life in all its complexity they set the stage for innovation in twentieth century art Rejecting what they perceived as the superficial descriptive quality of Impressionism Naturalism and Realism Symbolist artists delved beneath the surface to express feelings ideas scientific processes and universal truths By privileging intangible concepts over perceived realities and by asserting their creative autonomy Symbolist artists broke with the past and paved the way for the heterogeneity and penchant for risk taking that characterizes modern art The essays collected here which consider artists from France to Russia and Finland to Greece argue persuasively that Symbolist approaches to content form and subject helped to shape twentieth century Modernism Well known figures such as Kandinsky Khnopff Matisse and Munch are considered alongside lesser known artists such as Fini Gyzis Koen and Vrubel in order to demonstrate that Symbolist art did not constitute an isolated moment of wild experimentation but rather an inspirational point of departure for twentieth century developments

Hunter The New York Times Book Review and Balthus The authoritative account of his life and work Michael Ravitch Newsday gives us now the idiosyncratic lives of Sterling and Stephen Clark two of America's greatest art collectors heirs to the Singer sewing machine fortune and for decades enemies of each other He tells the story as well of the two generations that preceded theirs giving us an intimate portrait of one of the least known of America's richest families He begins with Edward Clark the brothers grandfather who amassed the Clark fortune in the late nineteenth century a man with nerves of steel a Sunday school teacher who became the business partner of the wild inventor and genius Isaac Merritt Singer And by the turn of the twentieth century was the major stockholder of the Singer Manufacturing Company We follow Edward's rise as a real estate wizard making headlines in 1880 when he commissioned Manhattan's first luxury apartment building The house was called Clark's Folly today it's known as the Dakota We see Clark's son Alfred enigmatic and famously reclusive at thirty eight he inherited 50 million and became one of the country's richest men An image of propriety good husband father of four in Europe he led a secret homosexual life Alfred was a man with a passion for art and charity which he passed on to his four sons in particular Sterling and Stephen Clark Sterling the second oldest buccaneering and controversial loved impressionism created his own museum in Williamstown Massachusetts and shocked his family by marrying an actress from the Com die Fran aise Together the Sterling Clarks collected thousands of paintings and bred racehorses In a highly public case Sterling sued his three brothers over issues of inheritance and then never spoke to them again He was one of the central figures linked to a bizarre and little known attempted coup against Franklin Delano Roosevelt's presidency We are told what really happened and why and who in American politics was implicated but never prosecuted Sterling's brother Stephen self effacing and responsible became chairman and president of the Museum of Modern Art and gave that institution its first painting Edward Hopper's House by the Railroad Thirteen years later in an act that provoked intense controversy Stephen dismissed the Museum's visionary founding director Alfred Barr who for more than a decade had single handedly established the collection and exhibition programs that determined how the art of the twentieth century was regarded Stephen gave or bequeathed to museums many of the paintings that today are still their greatest attractions With authority insight and a flair for evoking time and place Weber examines the depths of the brothers passions the vehemence of their lifelong feud the great art they acquired and the profound and lasting impact they had on artistic vision in America

Early

Modernism Christopher Butler, 1994 Early Modernism is a uniquely integrated introduction to the great avant garde movements in European literature music and painting at the beginning of this century from the advent of Fauvism to the development of Dada In contrast to the overly literary focus of previous studies of modernism this book highlights the interaction between the arts in this period It traces the fundamental and interlinked re examination of the languages of the arts brought about by Matisse Picasso Schoenberg Eliot Apollinaire Marinetti Ben and many others which led to radically new techniques such as atonality cubism and collage These changes are set in the context both of the art that preceded them and of a new and profound shift in ideas Theories of the unconscious the association of ideas primitivism and reliance upon an expressionist intuition led to a reshaped conception of personal identity and Butler examines the representation of the modernist self in the work of figures including Mann Joyce Conrad and Stravinsky Accessible and wide ranging the book is lavishly illustrated with over sixty illustrations many in color It provides an elegant and incisive guide to a momentous period in the history of European art Monet to Moore Richard R.
