Matjapat Songs in Central and West Java Margaret J. Kartomi, 1973 Matjapat Songs in the Cultural Areas of Central and West Java Margaret J. Kartomi, 1968 Missionaries, Anthropologists, and Music in the Indonesian Archipelago Anna Maria Busse Berger, Henry Spiller, 2025-03-18 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Although the history of Indonesian music has received much attention from ethnomusicologists and Western composers alike almost nothing has been written on the interaction of missionaries with local culture This study represents the first attempt to concentrate on the musical dimension of missionary activities in Indonesia In fourteen essays a group of distinguished scholars show the complexity of the topic while some missionaries did important scholarship on local music making recordings and attempting to use local music in services others tried to suppress whatever they found Many were collaborating closely with anthropologists who admitted freely that they could not have done their work without them And both parties brought colonial biases into their work By grappling with these realities and records this book is a collective effort to decolonize the project of making music histories

Meij,2017-07-31 Indonesian Manuscripts from the Islands of Java Madura Bali and Lombok discusses aspects of the long and impressive manuscript traditions of these islands which share many aspects of manuscript production Many hitherto unaddressed features of palm leaf manuscripts are discussed here for the first time as well as elements of poetic texts indications of mistakes colophons and the calendrical information used in these manuscripts All features discussed are explained with photographs The introductory chapters offer insights into these traditions in a wider setting and the way researchers have studied them This original and pioneering work also points out what topics needs further exploration to understand these manuscript traditions that use a variety of materials languages and scripts to a wider public Rhyme and Rhyming in Verbal Art, Language, and Song Venla Sykäri,Nigel Fabb,2022-12-05 This collection of thirteen chapters answers new questions about rhyme with views from folklore ethnopoeitics the history of literature literary criticism and music criticism psychology and linguistics The book examines rhyme as practiced or as understood in English Old English and Old Norse German Swedish Norwegian Finnish and Karelian Estonian Medieval Latin Arabic and the Central Australian language Kaytetye Some authors examine written poetry including modernist poetry and others focus on various kinds of sung poetry including rap which now has a pioneering role in taking rhyme into new traditions Some authors consider the relation of rhyme to other types of form notably alliteration An introductory chapter discusses approaches to rhyme and ends with a list of languages whose literatures or song traditions are known to have rhyme The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music Ruth M. Stone,2017-09-25 The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music is a ten volume reference work organized geographically by continent to represent the musics of the world in nine volumes The tenth volume houses reference tools and descriptive information about the encyclopedia s structure criteria for inclusion and other information specific to the field of ethnomusicology An award winning reference its contributions are from top researchers around the world who were active in fieldwork and from key institutions with programs in ethnomusicology GEWM has become a familiar acronym and it remains highly revered for its scholarship uncontested in being the sole encompassing reference work with a broad survey of world music More than 9 000 pages with musical illustrations photographs and drawings it is accompanied by 300 audio examples Recollecting Resonances ,2013-10-04 Over time Dutch and Indonesian musicians have inspired each other and they continue to do so Recollecting Resonances offers a way of studying these musical encounters and a mutual heritage one today still can listen to Music in Java J. Kunst,2012-12-06 One day in the summer of 1921 a postal delivery brought me a little packet of reprints from the periodical Djawa articles about Indonesian music by Dr JAAP KUNST which until that moment had not come to my notice A cursory glance was enough to convince me that the author was a very gifted man who had made a sound and absolutely scientific study of the subject and thereby made a valuable contribution by means of careful observation and actual tone measurements to the facts known from the older studies by GRONEMAN LAND and ELLIS These measure ments were particularly satisfying to me personally since they constituted an astonishing confirmation of a hypothesis concerning the genesis of tone systems through the cycle of blown fifths which I had propounded two years previously without however having published it At the same time it was proved through the perfect conformity existing between the measured and the theoretical absolute pitches vibration frequencies that Indonesian gamelan tuning too belongs to the radius of ancient Chinese culture much the same as is the case with Pan pipes and xylo phones all over the world The first contact between Dr KUNST and myself led to a regular correspondence which especially contributed to a further development of the above mentioned theory of tone systems

Bhima's Mystical Quest Petrus Suparyanto, 2019 This research based on the Jasadipoeran S rat D waruci the Ki Nartosabdan D waruci play and the dhalangs interpretation of the D waruci play they performed Using three divisions of the horizontal tripartite of the D waruci play and of the vertical tripartite of the wayang kulit cosmology together with the Javanese concepts of lair batin and rasa the examination of Bh ma s quest reveals three stages of the Javanese spiritual growth which can be systematically summarized as the purification of the corporeal feelings the purification of the emotional feelings and the purification of the intuitive feelings which culminates in the union with God the so called manunggaling kawula Gustia
