Garrity's seem to have it all but their picture perfect family portrait belies the troubles within. When a judge offers Garrity a pro bono murder case, a young man from the opposite end of the social spectrum, Charles Cooper, is accused of murdering his 14-year-old half sister. He takes it out of boredom even though he has never worked as a criminal defense attorney. Garrity's bumbling attempts at investigating the murder mystery and his frustrations with his client's family put him on a path to potential failure for the first time. The story unfolds as both a legal thriller and a three-dimensional family drama with Garrity having to confront unspoken truths about himself, his household, and especially his relationship with his wife. As events in the courtroom approach a boiling point, he comes face to face with the harsh realization that the Garritys have a startling amount in common with the family of the victim and the young man he is defending. Can he overcome it all to save his client, his practice, and most importantly, his family? Praise for the novels of Milton Bass: BASS lets it all hang out when he writes a nice mix of stylish suspense and slapdash action. He scares you too. BOSTON GLOBE.
