development of surrealism More broadly the book considers a range of motifs strongly associated with gothic writing as with insanity incarceration and the accursed outsider explored in relation to the personal experience and electroshock treatment of Antonin Artaud A recurring motif of the analysis is that of the gothic castle developed in the writings of Andr Breton Artaud Sade Julien Gracq and other writers as well as in the work of visual artists such as Magritte Barnett Newman and Heideggerian Philosophy Claude Cernuschi,2012-03-22 This book investigates the writings and works of the American Abstract Expressionist artist Barnett Newman in light of ideas articulated by one of Germany s most important and influential philosophers Martin Heidegger At the intersection of art history and philosophy an int Transmediations Niklas Salmose,Lars Elleström,2019-11-22 This collection offers a multi faceted exploration of transmediations the processes of transfer and transformation that occur when communicative acts in one medium are mediated again through another While previous research has explored these processes from a broader perspective Salmose and Ellestr m argue that a better understanding is needed of the extent to which the outcomes of communicative acts are modified when transferred across multimodal media in order to foster a better understanding of communication more generally Using this imperative as a point of departure the book details a variety of transmediations viewed through four different lenses The first part of the volume looks at narrative transmediations building on existing work done by Marie Laure Ryan on transmedia storytelling The second section focuses on the spatial dynamics involved in media transformation as well as the role of the human body as a perceptive agent and a medium in its own right The third part investigates new radical boundaries and media types in transmediality and hence shows its versatility as a method of analyzing complex and contemporary communicative discourses The fourth and final part explores the challenges involved in transmediating scientific data into the narrative format in the context of environmental issues Taken together these sections highlight a range of case studies of transmediations and in turn the complexity and variety of the process informed by the methodologies of the different disciplines to which they belong This innovative volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in multimodality communication intermediality semiotics and adaptation studies ArtUS. ,2003 Bomb ,2004 Transatlantic Encounters Michele Greet,2018-01-01 Paris was the artistic capital of the world in the 1920s and 30s providing a home and community for the French and international avant garde Latin American artists contributed to and reinterpreted nearly every major modernist movement that took place in the creative center of Paris between World War I and World War II including Cubism Diego Rivera Surrealism Antonio Berni and Roberto Matta and Constructivism Joaquin Torres Garcia Yet their participation in the Paris art scene has remained largely overlooked until now This book examines their collective role surveying the work of both household names and an extraordinary array of lesser known artists Michele Greet illuminates the significant ways in which Latin American expatriates helped establish modernism and conversely how a Parisian environment influenced the development of Latin American artistic identity Art Journal ,1960 Modern and Contemporary Art at Dartmouth Hood
