Matters Of Gender:

Matters of Gender Greta Hofmann Nemiroff, Gilda Leitenberg, 1996 Difference Matters Brenda J. Allen, 2010-07-19
Allen's proven ability and flare for presenting complex and oftentimes sensitive topics in nonthreatening ways carry over in the latest edition of Difference Matters. Her down to earth analysis of six social identity categories reveals how communication establishes and enacts identity and power dynamics. She provides historical overviews to show how perceptions of gender, race, social class, sexuality, ability, and age have varied throughout time and place. Allen clearly explains pertinent theoretical perspectives and illustrates those and other discussions with real life experiences, many of which are her own. She also offers practical guidance for how to communicate difference more humanely. While many examples are from organizational contexts, readers from a wide range of backgrounds can relate to them and appreciate their relevance. This eye opening vibrant text suitable for use in a variety of disciplines motivates readers to think about valuing difference as a positive enriching feature of society. Interactive elements such as Spotlights on Media, I D Checks, Tool Kits, and Reflection Matters questions awaken interest, awareness, and creative insights for change. The German Quarterly Elijah William Bagster-Collins, 1928 Includes section Reviews Gender Matters in the Baltics Irina Novikova, 2008 Class Matters Pat Mahony, Christine Zmroczek, 2005-08-19 This text focuses on the theory of class as it relates to women. It debates questions such as how do women define themselves in terms of social class and why is definition important or not? What part does education play in our understanding of class and how does class affect relationships? Women and Social Class Pat Mahony, Christine Zmroczek, 2004-01-14 This text focuses on women's theorized experience of social class from a range of feminist perspectives contextualized in relation to where they live. A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church Year A Wilda C. Gafney, 2021-08-17 What would it look like if women built a lectionary focusing on women's stories? What does it look like to tell the good news through the stories of women who are often on the margins of scripture and often set up to represent bad news? How would a lectionary centering women's stories, chosen with womanist and feminist commitments in mind, frame the presentation of the scriptures for proclamation and teaching? The scriptures are androcentric, male focused, as is the lectionary that is dependent upon them. As a result, many congregants know only the biblical men's stories told in the Sunday lectionary read in their churches. A more expansive, more inclusive lectionary will remedy that by introducing readers and hearers of scripture to women's stories in the scriptures. A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church, when completed, will be a three year lectionary accompanied by a stand alone single year lectionary, Year W, that covers all four gospels. Year A features the Gospel of Matthew with John interwoven, as is the case in the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and Episcopal Lectionary.
