Matthew Arnold Selected Poems Matthew Arnold,2012-02-25 Collectors Edition Matthew Arnold is one of my favorite poets and I think that this collection showcases some of his best work The poems are mostly his older and longer works so I wouldn t recommend this for someone who likes short poems some in here are pages long Selected Poems Matthew Arnold,1993 A selection of poems by Matthew Arnold This book is part of a series aimed at the general reader rather than the specialist and as such carries no critical or explanatory apparatus Other poets featured in this series include Christina Rossetti John Keats and Gerard Manley Hopkins Selected Poems of Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold,1898 Selected Poems of Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold,2015-06-12 Excerpt from Selected Poems of Matthew Arnold In making this collection which is intended primarily for school use we have tried to keep three things in view The poems chosen should exhibit Matthew Arnold s special qualities they should not in subject or in treatment be such as the young could not appreciate and they should give pupils something to think about in connexion with other poetry and other subjects of study Poems like Mycerinus and Stanzas from the Grande Chartreuse fine as they are hardly answer the second test The short lyrics as is natural with poems of that type are noteworthy rather for beauty of expression than for substance Sohrab and Rustum and Balder Dead the first poems in our selection being avowedly modelled on Homer we have thought it useful to quote in illustration a few passages of which the imitation is specially close These are taken mainly from the Iliad and for the translations we have relied on the prose version published by Messrs Lang Leaf any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Select Poems of Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold,1908

Select Poems of Matthew Arnold Edward Everett Hale, 2015-06-15 Excerpt from Select Poems of Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold was born at Laleham on the Thames in the county of Middlesex December 24 1822 He was the son of Thomas Arnold who had begun practical life as we may call it on leaving Oxford by taking private pupils The father is famous now as Headmaster of Rugby a man of most powerful and influential life in education and in religion as well whom his son always remembered with affection though he followed a life or more important a line of thought very different from Thomas Arnold's He was one of a large family who were closely bound together by great affection through life so that the true view we have of Arnold's personal life is gained almost entirely from letters either to his mother or his sisters and of course to his wife The influence of childhood amounted to much with Arnold for though the family soon left Laleham for Rugby which is not a very attractive place yet vacations were spent at Fox How in Westmoreland of which Dr Arnold was devotedly fond where Matthew learned to know the Lake Country and Wordsworth two very strong elements in forming his life and his poetry He went to school first at Winchester where his father had been but remained for a year only when he returned to Rugby He continued there four years and in 1841 went to Oxford About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Yes while On earth a thousand discords ring
Man's senseless uproar mingling with his toil
Still do thy quiet ministers move on
Their glorious tasks in silence perfecting
